ENTHUSIASM OF EAST BAY FANS SHOW
Luncheon, Parade and Flag-Raising Make Up Program That Starts the Ball Season on Oaks' Home Grounds
Club Management Renews Its Pledge to Supporters That Team Will Be Factor in the Race for 1919 Coast Flag

King Baseball climbed up on his old throne today and ruled Oakland. The King was deposed six years ago, when the Oaks refused to mingle with the first division clubs, but the national game has "come back" here and enthusiasm was never at a higher pitch. The Oaks are second only to the Los Angeles team in the Pacific Coast League, and they have won two games in a row from the San Francisco Seals.

Today's ceremonies marked the home-coming of the local club after spending a year in Sacramento and two days in San Francisco. In honor of the occasion, Mayor John L. Davis issued a proclamation suggesting that all stores and other places of business be closed during the afternoon, in order that every local fan could attend the game at Emeryville between the Seals and Oaks.

WOMEN FANS INVITED.
TO BASEBALL LUNCHEON
The festive luncheon at 11:30 o'clock this morning, when the players were met at the ball park by a fleet of automobiles and brought downtown, where they paraded behind a band. Then came the "Boosters' Luncheon," under the auspices of the Lions Club at the Hotel Oakland. The largest crowd that ever attended a similar affair in this city was present, and for the first time women were invited. The fair sex took advantage of the opportunity to get close-up of their diamond heroes, there being almost as many women as men present.

H. C. Capwell acted as toastmaster and called on representative baseball players for speeches. The president of the Oaks, told of the prospects of the local club and reiterated his promise to have the Oaks up in the first division throughout the season. Cal also hinted that he thought the Oaks would win the flag but he was content to predict that they would be in the race all the time.

MADE TO RAIL PARK AND FLAG-RISING
Dr. Charles H. Strub, president of the San Francisco Seals, gave the local club quite a boost when he declared it was the team to beat for the pennant. Dr. Howard Ewing, manager of the Oaks, also spoke, promising a number of well-known entertainers sang.

Following the luncheon the parade formed at the hotel and accompanied by a band, marched through the downtown streets and out to the baseball park. The parade was in charge of the Rotary club, with Williams acting as grand marshal.

A flag-raising ceremony took place just before the game, when a company of local ex-servicemen under command of Sergeant August Erbs, U. S. M. C., hoisted the colors.

Then came the parade from the clubhouse to the home plate, the pitching the first ball by Mayor Davis, and the call of the umpire to "ball."

FANS DARE TO HAVE HOPES OF PENNANT.
Oakland has come into her own again as a baseball city and for the first time in six years local fans are hopeful of winning a pennant. The Oaks are today in second place, one jump behind the Angels and their neighbors from across the bay are in fourth position.

The two decisive victories of the locals over the Seals this week have stirred up enthusiasm on this side of the bay to its highest pitch and fans who have not taken interest in the national game since Oakland's defeat in 1912 are back in their old places in the stands and bleachers rooting for the home bunch.

"WEAK SPOTS" DON'T PREVENT VICTORIES.
Del Howard, who assembled as good looking a ball club as there is in the league. The addition of Herb Brenton and Denny Wille rounded out the club. Some of the outside critics have picked alleged "weak spots" in the line-up, but as long as the Oaks are able to win from the Seals, local fans and families are well satisfied to have the so-called "weak spots" remain as they are.

Before the season started, Cal Ewing and Del Howard promised the fans that Oakland would never be out of the first division. They have more than made good as the team has lost but two games in eight played. Sacramento took these two contests, but the Oaks took four of the six played and won the series.

NEW SPIRIT SHOWN AMONG THE DIRECTORS.
Not only has the Oakland team been rejuvenated this season but the money was paid. Frank Woodward, local manager of the Great Western Power Company and probably the keenest baseball fan in northern California, was given a place on the board of directors. Woodward is not on the job more than a week before the signing of Rowdy Elliott was announced. Rowdy cost the club a fat sum but Oakland was promised a winner and the money was paid. Prof. Stephens' Death Casts New Gloom Over U.C.

HENRY MORSE STEPHENS.

Famous Historian Dies On Leaving Service For Mrs. Hearst

In Faculty Glade, beside the Faculty club, where he lived, the funeral of Professor Henry Morse Stephens, dean of the college of letters in the University of California and one of the world's leading historians, will be held at Berkeley tomorrow morning. His death, of angina pectoris, occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon as he was on a car in San Francisco returning toward Berkeley from the funeral of Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst.

Bishop William Ford Nichols, assisted by Rev. W. J. H. Hodgkin of Berkeley will conduct the brief funeral services, at which the Episcopal service will be read. Members of the faculty will assemble in a body at the Sather Tower at 10:15 o'clock and march in a body to the glade.

The active pallbearers will include Frank S. Harris, Charles L. Deane, Marshall Paxton, George Acheson, Merrill Brown Jr. and Grant J. Hunt. These represent the Golden Ebor honor society, as well as being members of the Phi Kappa Psi, the history department society.

HONORARY PALLBEARERS
The honorary pallbearers include President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Senator James D. Phelan, Regent Rudolph Taussig, Regent Guy C. Earl, Regent James K. Moffett, Warren Olney Jr., Professor Herbert B. Bolton, Professor E. D. Adams, Stanford, Robert E. Brown and Professor Walter Morris Hart, associates and long friends of the deceased, had the body removed this morning to Berkeley. They will be in charge of the funeral.

The funeral loss is so brief a time of the chief benefactor of the university and one of its best loved instructors has plunged the college into renewed mourning. Plans for a half mast today. Many classes were omitted, including all of those of the late dean, among them the classes of heaviest registration in the university. Student body as well as faculty sought means for expression of grief, and made preliminary plans for a student demonstration.

Professor Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California paid the following tribute to Professor Stephens:

"These are heavy days with us. Fate is taking away the best we have. We shall we do without them? Shall we not each student and teacher, pledge our renewed and redoubled loyalty to the university in this supreme hour of loss and grief? Dear beloved Professor Stephens, great teacher and scholar, great heart and friend, how empty and hollow this world seems today without you."

STEPHENS' DEATH CAME SUDDENLY
Professor Stephens' death, though its suddenness was unexpected, did not come altogether without warning. Two years ago he was taken ill by Dr. Robert E. Legge, university physician, who went East specially to treat him and bring him back, to relinquish a portion of the arduous duties to which he had devoted himself.

Professor Stephens left Grace Cathedral after the funeral yesterday in company with Professor Hart, dean of the summer session, and the two boarded a Clay-street car for the

First German Ship Bringing Home American Soldiers Is Put in Peril Out of Boston, With 2000 Fighters Aboard

Tenton Locked in Stateroom Manipulates Wires So to Start Blaze; One of Foe Guards Allowed on Craft

BOSTON, April 17.—A German agent allowed on the transport Patricia to look out for German property attempted to set fire to the vessel last night as it was leaving Boston with more than 2000 American soldiers, according to Major Frank C. Cavanaugh of the 102nd Field Artillery, one of the officers on board.

The man had been locked in a stateroom because of his actions. When a guard left the room, the German, whose name was given as Fisher, is alleged to have manipulated the wires in such a way as to start a blaze in the stateroom. The guard found a lively fire burning when he returned. Members of the crew extinguished the fire and Fisher was placed in front of one of his country partners on board the Patricia by consent of the allied governments to watch the Hamburg-American Line's property. He was formerly a second officer on a German merchant ship.

The Patricia is one of the first German merchant ships turned over to the allies.

SEARCH FOR U.C. PRESIDENT IS TURNED TO EAST

Order comes but slowly out of the complications incident to the choice of a new president for the University of California to succeed Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, at least so far as the public announcement indicates. Three new features of the situation developed today.

Dr. Henry Suzzalo, president of the University of Washington, was announced on his way to give an address in the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Regent A. W. Foster started East ostensibly to visit at least two Eastern universities.

Lieutenant Colonel David P. Barrows, former dean of the faculties and professor of political science, returned from Siberia.

How far any of these events justified a prophecy of the future incumbency of the college presidency none of the regents today would say. It was, however, not denied that Dr. Suzzalo was on his way to give an address in the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Lieutenant Colonel David P. Barrows, former dean of the faculties and professor of political science, returned from Siberia.

DAVIE TO ASK DR. HERRICK TO RESIGN OFFICE

Request that Dr. L. F. Herrick, recently a candidate for mayor against Mayor-elect John L. Davis, resign from the park board, in which he was placed by Mayor Davis, will be sent to Herrick tomorrow from the mayor's office. Davie is composing the letter today.

The letter, which accuses Herrick of using prestige given him by the mayor's favor to oppose Davie in the recent campaign, suggests that Herrick's resignation should have been turned in before he was a candidate for mayor, and suggests that now that the campaign is over and Davie's action cannot therefore be ascribed to campaign publicity, Herrick be asked to resign.

"The mayor feels," said Preston Higgins, secretary to the mayor, "that Herrick's campaign was most unfair. Using the prestige he obtained through the mayor's having appointed him to the park board, he attacked the mayor with false statements and innuendoes. The mayor honored him by making him head of a draft board, a patriotic duty with high responsibilities. He took the government lists of names and used them, employing a former clerk in the draft board to make personal appeals to former draftees to vote for Herrick."

"Therefore, the mayor thinks that he should not hold his place on the park board, a place to which he was appointed by the man he has wronged. The mayor is free to act and to suggest therefore that Dr. Herrick resign this place that was given him by the mayor has no power to force Herrick's resignation, but can recommend a successor to him in June."

TWO KILLED IN AIRSHIP'S FALL AT VENICE, CAL.

VENICE, Cal., April 17.—Andrew Curry, an aviation instructor employed by a school here, and Frank Suzzalo, a pupil of Curry, were killed today when their plane went into a tail-spin and fell 2000 feet in a residence section of the city.

The aviator, who lived a few minutes before he was killed, was in the plane because his pupil became excited and clung to his controls.

Curry lived in Los Angeles and was assistant to Otto Meyerhofer, Venice aerial policeman. His companion was practically a novice, having taken only two or three lessons.

The plane was struck by the ground at Sixth and Indiana streets and was smashed into a mass of wreckage. Aviation school employees said Curry and Zebeola had a similar crash yesterday, but that Curry wrestled control from his pupil in time to avoid death.

3 BROTHERS FACE MURDER, THEFT CHARGE

Edwin Dersch, Taken From Oakland to Los Angeles, Is Charged With Being Member of Black Hand Gang

Killing of Fruit Peddler Is Laid to Bold Trio, Who Are Alleged Leaders in Daring Band of Auto Thieves

When Edward Dersch reached Los Angeles today the police in that city will have in custody the third and youngest of three brothers, whom they will try to send to the gallows for the murder of a fruit peddler.

The story of the alleged operations of the Dersch brothers was revealed by the arrival here of Blasdel. The murder of the police will try to fasten on them is that of Mike Rizzo, a fruit peddler, an Italian fruit peddler, early in March. The other two brothers are Otto and William. Otto has already been bound over to the Superior court of Los Angeles on a charge of grand larceny.

ALD THREE TO FACE CHARGE OF MURDER
William is now serving a sentence of from one to ten years on a charge involving the same crime as that charged against Otto. Edward is now booked as a participant in the same crime. The grand larceny charge is based upon the alleged automobile thefts of the brothers.

But, in addition to the grand larceny charge, which one of the brothers has already faced and which the other two are facing, all three will be required to face a charge of murder, says Blasdel.

The double cross, say the Los Angeles police, figured in the killing of Mike Rizzo was a criminal suspect and was under investigation.

The police theory is that the Dersch brothers were mixed up with Blackhand operations, that there was a difference between them and Rizzo and that they feared what Rizzo might tell the police.

It has been established that hand-ds, driving in a car stolen from Los Angeles, were in the fruit stand and then drove away. The automobile with three empty shells in it was found next morning abandoned on the outskirts of the city. According to Los Angeles police, they have evidence that connects the Dersch brothers with the theft of this car.

DEATH THREATS ARE SENT TO BROTHERS
It has also been found that Otto Dersch is related by marriage to an Italian family. Particular significance is given to the arrest of the brothers, since they have been under investigation by Detectives Erven and Hlick of Los Angeles have received numerous death threats. Witnesses have also refused to testify, saying they were afraid of the Dersch brothers.

Eighteen hundred persons, including 400 women, were murdered by the Bolsheviks at Ufa, according to a telegram from Omsk.

Ufa, one of the principal cities in the Orenburg district, near the Siberian border, was taken by the Bolsheviks early this spring, but late in March was recaptured by forces of the Omsk-all-Russian government, which has continued to press back the Bolsheviks in this region. Despatches from Omsk dated April 5 and received on Tuesday announced the massacre by the Bolsheviks of more than 2000 civilians in and near the town of Oza, to the north of Ufa, in this district.

The situation at Smyrna, where the Turks and Greeks are ready to spring at each other's throats, is typical of the situation throughout Turkey. Bands of brigands are committing atrocities, even within a few miles of Constantinople, and are committing atrocious murders.

The Committee of Union and Progress, the Young Turk organization, is reported to be actively conducting an energetic reorganization movement.

Allies Set May 15 as Time Limit For Germany to Accept All Peace Treaty Conditions

Norway, Switzerland To Be Allied Agents In Feeding Russians

(Associated Press summary of the European situation.)

Germany will be forced either to accept or reject the peace terms by May 15, according to reports printed in Paris, and it is indicated that no reply is expected before May 6.

The Russian Premier, Vladimir Lenin, has been agreed to divulge the details of the provisions of the proposed treaty while speaking in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, and the failure of Premier Lenin to do so to speak in more than general terms before the House of Commons, indicates that no intimation of the terms will be made public at present.

It was announced at a meeting of the council of ten in Paris yesterday afternoon that various articles of the pact now are in the hands of the drafting committee, and that the remaining articles would be disposed of today.

Norway and Switzerland will act as agents of the allied and associated governments in feeding the Russian people, even within a few miles of Constantinople, and are committing atrocious murders.

The Committee of Union and Progress, the Young Turk organization, is reported to be actively conducting an energetic reorganization movement.

Albania has appealed to Premier Clemenceau, as president of the peace conference, asking for confirmation of the complete independence of that country. Here, too, there is a willingness that the United States should assume control of governmental affairs in Albania.

WILSON PLANS TO RETURN TO U.S. NEXT MONTH.
The latest tentative date for President Wilson to arrive in Washington is between May 20 and 25, thus indicating, the American delegates believe, that the German peace treaty before the expiration of the proposed time limit.

The reported agreement to furnish the entire Russian situation to a head. Some difficulty was anticipated, however, in effecting the cessation of all fighting in Russia, for while the Germans may accept the proposed agreement could be withdrawn without interference, the anti-Bolshevik factions represented by the Russian government would not be so ready to do so.

The invitation to the Germans apparently was forwarded before all the belligerents had an opportunity to sign it. It is understood that it was taken by courier to Spa on Tuesday, at which time only the five great powers had signed the text. The eighteen smaller belligerents were called in yesterday, and the document was signed by them in the afternoon at the Quai D'Orsay. It was purely formal, but necessary as there were twenty-three nations at war with Germany, instead of five. The document, bearing the signatures of the smaller nations, it was believed, was hurried to Spa in the wake of the first message.

PARIS, April 17.—President Wilson feels that he has not surrendered on any of his fourteen peace principles, it was learned today. A member of the American delegation. At the same time the President has been able completely to harmonize the views of the French and British, whose pledges to their peoples are unimpaired.

It is now virtually certain that the Germans will be asked formally to accept the principles of the league of nations although they will not be admitted to the smaller nations. On the eve of the drafting of the treaty it can be said with official sanction that the American, British and French delegations feel entirely satisfied with the terms agreed upon. All are in perfect harmony. The relations have been most cordial, so that any fears that might have been entertained in pessimistic circles that the Germans would attempt to work in a wedge between the big three are groundless. The Germans, when they arrive, will find the Americans, British and French lined up as one.

TEUTONS WILL ASK INDEMNITY FROM ALLIES

Frankfort Gazette Says Germany Will Claim Damages for Aerial Attacks, Occupation and Delay in Peace Pact

PARIS, April 17.—(Havas).—Germany intends to claim an indemnity from the allies, according to the Frankfort Gazette. It says the German negotiators at Versailles will ask payment for damages sustained from aerial attacks, from the occupation of German territory by the allied troops and for the delay in concluding peace, causing a prolongation of the Bolshevik and Spartacist trouble.

Providing this arrangement is carried out, the Germans will have just three weeks to debate a settlement which required the allies to accept all conditions of the treaty. The Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian representatives probably will be summoned to Paris simultaneously after the treaty is handed to the German government.

DEAD SOLDIER SUICIDE, FIND AUTHORITIES

HAYWARD, April 17.—The body of a soldier suicide, still unidentified, lay at the local branch morgue awaiting the efforts of Fredrick officers on their way here today, to learn its identity. The body was found on the Western Pacific Company's right of way near the Niles depot yesterday noon, but Deputy Coroner Ralph Richmond's efforts at identification have so far been in vain.

The rear-end flapman of a Western Pacific freight passing the spot discovered the body, lying face down beside the track. Near the right hand lay a razor, stained with blood. The throat had been cut. All the circumstances, Richmond says, point to suicide.

With the exception of one button, which indicated the deceased had belonged to an engineers' division, every mark of identification had been removed from the clothing. The soldier was about 40 years of age, six feet tall, weighed 170 pounds and was of medium complexion and smooth shaven.

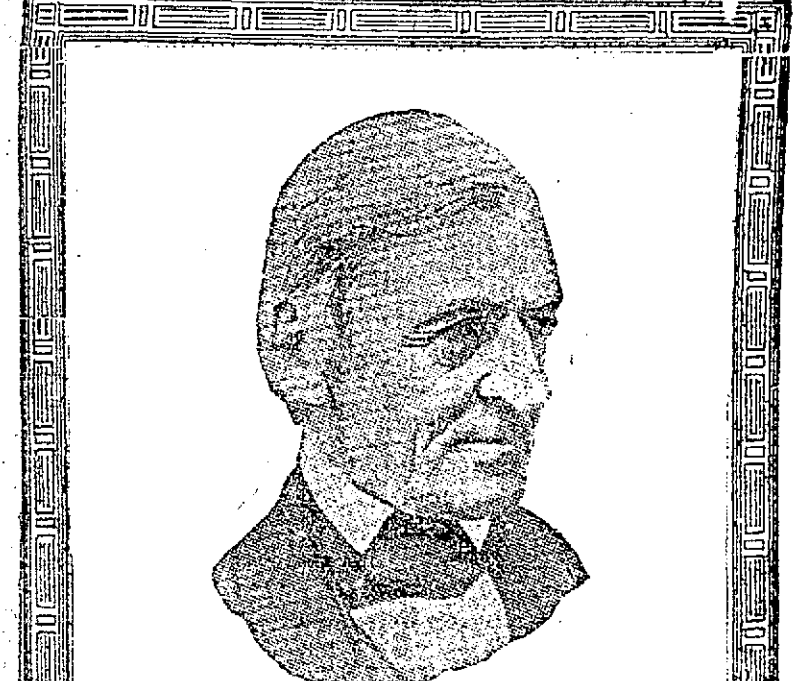

Until a complete investigation of circumstances surrounding the suicide had been made by the deputy coroner it was believed that the soldier had been murdered, and local authorities were so led to believe. Subsequent examination showed the man had died by his own hand.

"Hello Mack's" Wife Sues for Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The wife of Joseph T. McBurney, alias Otto Glick, a Marysville blacksmith better known to the sporting world for his recent impersonation of Owen Moran, the famous English boxer, filed a petition for a divorce in the Superior Court here today.

Extreme cruelty and desertion are among the allegations. McBurney obtained considerable notoriety recently when he presented himself to certain sports writers claiming to be Owen Moran, whom he resembled. An investigation revealed that McBurney, under the name of Glick, had enlisted in the quarter-master's corps and was attached to Fort McVee. Among the other allegations made by the wife, Mrs. Effie C. McBurney, was that her husband, while in uniform, was frequently able to obtain whisky at an unnamed saloon by the magic words of "Hello, Mack." This immediately produced a pint flask of whisky, according to the petitioner.

Emerson Was Right

The millions of pairs of Kryptoks in use bear out the truth of Emerson's famous quotation noted in the margin. Before the evolution of Kryptoks it was necessary to have separate pairs of glasses for reading and distance or to be content with the old-fashioned bifocals with the ugly dividing line. Millions of bifocal wearers welcomed the evolution of

"If a man preach a better sermon, write a better book or build a better mouse trap than his neighbor, though he hide himself in the wilderness the world will make a beaten path to his door."—Emerson

Kryptoks are really invisible bifocals. As perfect in appearance as any single lens Kryptoks.

Budapest Property Is Nationalized Former Wealthy Weep at Poverty

VIENNA, April 16.—(By Associated Press.)—Reports of the executions at Budapest of Count Michael Karolyi, Archduke Joseph and others are untrue. The city continues outwardly quiet, with progress being made toward the nationalization of property. It is estimated there are only twenty naturalized Americans and American wives of Hungarians in Hungary.

Count Karolyi finds socialism a difficult problem and was much downcast when here. His despondency was caused partly because he was being restricted in his expenditures. In former times he was accustomed to spending a million crowns annually.

RICH FOLK SUFFER

Count Karolyi's frame of mind is characteristic of all persons in Hungary who have been apprehensive for weeks as to what would happen next. It is a common thing to see a party of men and women walking along the streets of promenades sitting in cafes and to see one woman burst into tears and then laughingly wipe her eyes. Thus is shown the tension under which people are living who have lost all their property and the hope that came with the end of the war.

Foreigners, especially Americans, are receiving attractive marriage proposals from families of wealthy young women who expect by this means to save something from the wreck of their fortunes because of the fact that foreign property will be exempted from nationalization.

CAN'T TAKE PROPERTY.

Women who marry foreigners will be enabled to travel freely over the frontiers with their families. There is a disposition on the part of the new government, however, to allow middle class Hungarians to leave, provided they do not take property with them.

The condition of many Hungarians who have fled to Vienna is one of abject poverty. Count Alexander Esterhazy, who lost his son in the war and who was with former Emperor Charles until the latter went to Switzerland, is finding means of subsistence by selling the furniture in his house here.

There has been a recent exchange of views by officials of Hungary and German Austria. Minister of War Boehm and Herr Pogany of the Hungarian foreign office are laughingly wipe their eyes. Thus is shown the tension under which people are living who have lost all their property and the hope that came with the end of the war.

DOCTOR FALLS TO DEATH IN SHAFT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Dr. C. Henry Wells, prominently known in cattle, met his death as the result of injuries received in a fall down an elevator shaft in the Crocker apartment, 1651 Market street, this morning, and it is believed that he fell down the shaft some time after a o'clock last night.

The freight elevator was in the basement, and it is the belief of the police that Dr. Wells opened the door to the elevator shaft by mistake and stepped into space.

The operator of the elevator was off duty. He says all the doors to the shaft were shut. Dr. Wells did not live in the apartment. What business took him to the place is not known.

The physician came here from Seattle on a visit a week ago and was living at the Washington hotel. He was found last night, shot by the elevator shaft, in the elevator shaft, by James E. Pow, manager of the apartments, when the latter went to the basement to shut off the hot water furnace. The body of the injured man was hanging, head down, from the bottom of the elevator car into the shaft, being entangled in a controlling gear under the car.

Pow says that he never saw the dead physician before, and Detective Thomas Conlon, who investigated last night, says that he could find no one in the apartments who knew him. Dr. D. Brandley, 2500, 948 Market street, said that Dr. Wells had called on him several times to receive treatment for nervousness since his arrival in San Francisco.

MEXICO REBEL GENERAL DEAD AFTER BATTLE

MEXICO CITY, April 17.—General Aureliano Blanquet, war minister in President Huerta's cabinet, who recently was reported to have landed in the Vera Cruz region for the purpose of starting a revolution against the Huerta government, was killed yesterday in a tight race near Chavazilla village, according to press reports from Vera Cruz, which quote a report from General Francisco Alvarez, chief of military preparations in the region of Cordova and Orizaba.

According to telegrams given out by General Uruquiza, the commander in the region of Chavazilla, General Guadalupe Sanchez met a party of rebels under Blanquet late yesterday afternoon, defeating them. The dead body of General Blanquet was found here.

General Sanchez telegraphed that he was bringing General Blanquet's head to Vera Cruz to establish the identification.

GENERAL ALVAREZ IS TAKEN PRISONER

General Francisco Alvarez was taken prisoner, together with the family of Pedro Olvera, one of the most active lieutenants of Felix Diaz.

Vera Cruz papers have recently been printing numerous stories regarding General Blanquet's proposed revolt. These stories have been published in the United States, but General Blanquet's claim that he had 40,000 men, with artillery and an aeroplane, and that he was allied with other factors, has been scouted officially. The band which General Blanquet was leading when he was killed was small and was poorly equipped, it is reported.

BLANQUET MADE ARREST

OF PRESIDENT MADRID

While only a youth General Blanquet was a member of the firing squad that put to death Emperor Maximilian at Queretaro. Rising in the government service, he became a minister in the cabinet of President Huerta, being the man who personally arrested President Francisco Madero when Huerta seized the reins of government. It was charged that he was involved in the later assassination of Madero.

When Huerta fled from Mexico General Blanquet accompanied him. Recent reports received here stated that he was operating a motion picture theater in Brooklyn, New York.

ESCORTED TO DIAZ

FORCE HEADQUARTERS.

General Aureliano Blanquet sailed from New York for a port in the West Indies, January 8 last. He was provided with passport and credentials but the fact of his departure was known to only a few of his intimate friends. He was accompanied by a lieutenant, Montano and Brigadier General Bonifacio Gonzales, with some minor officers.

The party landed at an unrequented Mexican port late in March and was met by a guard sent by Felix Diaz and was escorted to Tepic, Jalisco, the headquarters of the Diaz forces. Since that time there have been reports of operations by General Blanquet and his chief, Senor Diaz.

General Blanquet was 71 years old.

ASKS COURT O.K. ON BILL AGAINST CITY

Claims against the city for portions of firemen's uniforms, claims for which were rejected some time ago by Auditor Fred W. Le Ballister, were again rejected today. They must be ordered paid by a court decision before the city can settle the bills incurred, amounting to $737. This was the ultimatum handed today to the city council by the city auditor.

The claim was approved by the city council at the time that the plan for purchasing uniforms was abandoned. Le Ballister having refused to pay the bills. The portions of the equipment already contracted for when Le Ballister declared the bills illegal had already been delivered; the council rescinded all proceedings with the exception of those and approved the bills incurred.

Le Ballister refused to pay the bills, and the matter was placed before City Attorney H. L. Hagan, who reported that under the circumstances he believed the bills could be paid without endangering the auditor's bond.

Le Ballister, after consulting his own attorneys, today reported that he did not approve the bills without court action. The case was then re-referred to the city attorney.

85 YEARS OLD; LOOKS IN VAIN FOR LABOR

Fred Harper, soldier of fortune, adventurer, model, is today celebrating his eighty-fifth birthday at the county infirmary, where he was sent yesterday by Mrs. P. G. Harrison, county social agent, to whom he had appealed to assist him in finding a position. Harper told a pitiful story of how he had been turned down repeatedly during the last two weeks in search of a position.

Harper formerly posed as an artist's model for the art department of the University of California.

Mrs. Harrison advised him to go to the county infirmary and gave him an order which would admit him.

With misty eyes he took it and said:

"Well, it's a shame I've got to go out there when I am willing and able to work, but I will leave it again, and anyway I'll be glad to go to a place where he threatens to become a nuisance to people. No one will ever say I gave anyone trouble."

Before sunset tonight a birthday cake with eighty-five candles on it will arrive at the county infirmary for Harper," said Mrs. Harrison.

Mayo Made Head of Entire Navy of U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Admiral Henry T. Mayo, commander of the Atlantic fleet throughout the war, has been designated by Secretary Daniels as commander-in-chief of the "United States fleet." This order does not affect present dispatches of the nation's fleet, but Admiral Mayo would be in supreme command only in the event the three separate fleets—the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Asiatic—were brought together.

JURORS READY TO GIVE BURGLAR DAYLIGHT DOUBT

Sympathetic jurors came near saving Joseph Smith from conviction of the crime of first degree burglary last night in Judge James G. Quinn's department. The members of the jury yielded to the law and the evidence, however, and after several hours' deliberation brought in a verdict of first degree burglary, the penalty for which is from one to fifteen years in state prison.

The defendant stole clothes from the home of Mrs. Lily Snyder, Eighth and Washington streets, at about 8 o'clock at night. The law defines first degree burglary to be a burglary committed between sundown and sun up. The jurors attempted to postpone the sunset, something like Joshua did, one of the jurors said, but the majority of the jury were for acquittal, but after two hours they reported a verdict of conviction in the first degree.

Over Top in a Week Is Valjejo's Goal

VALLEJO, April 17.—Jaymaster Ralph Phelps, who is filling the position of liberty loan officer at the navy yard, has been advised that Valjejo's share for the coming drive is $609,275, and Solano's quota in the coming campaign is $1,443,300. This is a reduction of some $300,000 in Valjejo's share, and it is believed that this community will not experience any trouble in going "over the top" this first week.

HERE'S A SECRET FROM YOUR TAILOR

He Is Not So Smart as You Think

You have probably often wondered how a tailor can mend a tear in a piece of cloth in a manner so difficult to detect. The secret lies in the use of mending tissue. This substance is placed upon the torn fabric, the broken threads are placed together and a warm iron run over it—the result is that the threads all stick to the rubber tissue which is vulcanized into the fabric which it holds together as though it had never been torn.

Mending tissue is an invaluable thing to have around the house, if you ever try it once.

You can get a large piece for 10c.

YOU'LL SAVE MONEY ON TRUSSES AT BOWMAN'S

Experts to Fit You

This store makes no charge for fitting Elastic Stockings, Abdominal Bandages, Trusses, etc.

We carry a complete assortment of the very best standard makes and have experts to fit you.

This merchandise is all marked in plain figures, and if we are to judge by what the public tell us our prices are way below those quoted in many other stores.

For example: We are able to sell our best Elastic Truss for $5.00, and our finest double Truss for $8.00.

As far as we can see there is no justification in any one charging more than these prices, in fact for $3.00 we can furnish almost anyone with a comfortable, well made truss.

The other day a party came to the store and stated that they had just thrown away a Truss that cost them $7.00 and that the one we sold them for $3.00 was not only more comfortable, but a better made article.

Some firms seem to try to make all of their profits out of their truss department. We mark these goods, however, upon the same margin of profit that we do other merchandise.

INEXPENSIVE WRITING PAPER

Here is good news to people who write letters. We have a special lot of Eton Crane & Pike Company's Coburg Linen which we are going to sell for 30c a box. These boxes come with two different styles of envelopes with paper to match, in white only.

If you are a constant user of correspondence paper, it would pay you well to purchase half a dozen boxes of this 30c paper while you have the opportunity to do so. It is attractive in every particular and is only sold at this price to advertise our stationery department.

At Bowman's the matter of profit takes care of itself. We never permit the mercenary element to be the predominating factor in any transaction.

3 CAKES OF TOILET SOAP IN A BOX FOR 25c

Looks Like Real French Soap

A fortunate purchase has enabled us to offer 3 cakes of Toilet Soap in a box for 25c.

This soap is after the style of the finest French soaps and is in round cake form.

It is put up in flower odors such as Lilac, Heliotrope or Rose.

You would usually pay 40c for a box of soap of this kind.

WASH LACE CURTAINS WITH SOAP BARK

The best way to wash lace curtains, or light lacy dresses, or fabrics of this description is to use Soap Bark instead of soap.

Soap Bark cleanses without rubbing and does not turn fabrics yellow.

The next time you are in the store we suggest that you purchase a small quantity of Soap Bark and try it out on delicate fabrics.

Our customers who have used it are very enthusiastic about it.

A GOOD SPRING TONIC MIGHT BRACE YOU UP

If you feel the need of a 30-day treatment of Spring medicine, we would advise you to purchase a bottle of Bowman's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla.

This extract is not a syrup but a real spring medicine.

For 50c you can get an extra large bottle containing enough for at least 30 days' treatment.

If you do not feel in fighting trim, an investment of 90c as above might be the very thing for you.

AFTER EASTER PUT UP EGGS

Come to Us and We Will Tell You How

As soon as Easter is over the price of eggs will probably drop to the lowest point at which they will reach this year.

Those who wish to avoid the usual high winter prices had better arrange to put up their eggs before the first of May.

The most successful method that we know of is the use of Silica of Soda which can be purchased for 20c a bottle. A 20c bottle is sufficient to take care of at least 5 dozen eggs.

We have another egg preserver which comes in form of a paste which you rub upon the egg, after which the egg is put away dry. This method is preferred by many.

For 60c you can purchase a 3-oz. package of this paste, sufficient to put up 40 dozen eggs.

H. L. Boyle to Go Into Business for Himself

Harry L. Boyle, defeated in the race for city auditor, and due to retire from the school board, will go into business for himself, he announced today. He will not return to the employ of the Key System, with which he was connected until trouble arose over his employment as a public service corporation while a city official.

"I have decided not to work for a corporation again; you never get more than a salary," said Boyle. "I am going to make myself some money—real estate or something like that. I can sell anything."

DAVIE TO AID CANDIDATES BACKING HIM

That Mayor John L. Davie will ask the people to support his choice for the commissionships and auditorship, in order "to give him a council that will back up his policies," is forecasted by friends of the city executive today.

"Davie said that he had discussed this matter with his advisers, that he had not decided whether he would make a definite campaign for his choice, but that he would at least make known his preferences before the final election.

"If my friends want to vote for those who are favorable to my policies, and with whom I can work the best, I will certainly tell them," said Davie. "I think the people can judge well enough. Everyone knows about how I will stand on the commissionships fight, and they know how Le Ballister has acted toward me, for instance, and the vote for me shows how I stand with the people.

"As to coming out and taking the stump for other candidates, I really haven't decided, and will have to give this a good deal of thought. Today I am resting. I will start to think about it tomorrow, but I think possibly I will be too busy to do much active campaigning even for my friends. Doubtless, though, my friends will desire to know how I stand on candidates, and I will of course have means of informing them."

Commissioner W. H. Edwards, leading candidate for Commissioner No. 2, today held a conference with the mayor. He said that they did not discuss politics to any extent, however.

Graft Cloaked in Army Uniforms Public Warned of Fake Schemes

Efforts being made throughout the country to protect both public and soldier from the criminal who poses as a discharged soldier, are to be joined by the Oakland Advertising Club. The movement to end by publicity a condition that is asserted to have become serious was started by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, and through that organization the Oakland Ad Club has received a warning that says in part:

"A warning has been issued by the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, New York City, to the public generally and to local vigilance committees of Advertising Clubs in particular, to look out for men posing as recently discharged soldiers who are using the United States uniform for illegitimate purposes.

"The National Vigilance Committee, in issuing this bulletin, says that it is receiving reports from 'conspirators' in California, exposing the methods of uniformed grafters.

DISCHARGE PAPERS TAKEN.
"In an Indiana city, the want columns of the daily papers were used to advertise for discharged soldiers seeking employment. These boys were told to die their applications and required to leave their discharge papers until the next day for examination. The next day, the employment agent had disappeared with the discharge papers, which will presumably be used in an endeavor to collect money from the public.

"The National Vigilance Committee, in issuing this bulletin, says that it is receiving reports from 'conspirators' in California, exposing the methods of uniformed grafters.

"The subscriber receives a card as a receipt, and this is to be returned to the publisher of the paper. In one instance, the paper is purported to be published in New Jersey but the printed address on the mailing card is a town in Ohio.

FALSE LABOR REPORTS.
"Many who buy subscriptions never mail the cards, and they may be fortunate after all, for after reviewing one issue of such a publication recently, the vigilance committee believes the subscriber would better save the time required to look it over.

"This form of graft is made all the easier because of the reports in circulation that so many returned soldiers are unable to find work.

"The National Vigilance Committee urges employers of the country over to give honorable employment to every discharged soldier possible, and other things being equal, give them the preference in employment; and says the bulletin, 'we urge you in every case such as cited, to report the incident to the proper authorities, and should the man in uniform be able to prove his identity, do everything possible to obtain respectable employment for him.'"

PROMINENT MEN IN DRY LAW NET

Charging conspiracy to violate the Reed amendment act in shipping liquor into a dry state, Annette A. Adams, United States attorney, filed a petition yesterday asking for the removal from Utah to the San Francisco district of John Brownling, son of the inventor of the Brownling gun; Joseph Eccles, member of a wealthy family which controls the Amalgamated Sugar Corporation of Utah and Idaho; and J. E. De Vine, an attorney of Ogden.

The three are wanted on an indictment which charged them and James F. Delaney, Harry and Price. The petition was later withdrawn by Price, United States Attorney Adams stating to the court that Price had not been fully informed as to his rights, and after being advised as to the evidence against him, justice compelled her to ask that his plea of guilty be withdrawn. The sentence of Delaney and Delaney will be pronounced by the judge of the United States District Court on May 15.

According to the true bill returned against the accused, Brownling, Eccles and De Vine had large shipments of whisky, gin, vermuth and other liquors sent to them for their personal use. The goods were purchased in San Francisco by Delaney from Rathbun Bros last September and six trunk loads are alleged to have been checked to the Utah defendants.

Delaney was an employee of the American Express Co. Brazil assisted him in the shipment of the liquor, it is charged.

Price was an employee of the Southern Pacific Company, and his alleged part in the transaction was to deadhead some of the trucks to Ogden.

The evidence secured by the Department of Justice shows that Price did not know that the trucks contained kegs of whisky and other liquors.

"MONEY COULDN'T TAKE ITS PLACE"

California Woman Feels Entirely Well and Gains Ten Pounds Taking Tanlac

"Money couldn't take the place of all the good that Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Sadie Clement, who lives at No. 5426 E. 12th St., in the Hollywood, Cal., to a Tanlac representative a few days ago.

"I began to have trouble with my stomach and I noticed that what I ate was not agreeing with me, for it seemed to form so much gas that I would get so nauseated at times that I didn't care to eat a thing, and then again this gas pressed so on my heart that I got alarmed. This feeling was so bad at night, that I got nervous and couldn't go to sleep. I was so weak that I would get up in the mornings all tired and worn out and I got so weak that I couldn't do my housework. I was simply got upset and I lost strength and weight and was so run down that I was about as good as dead. I was so tired and so weak that I couldn't go to work and I had a pain in my left side and for the last few months of last year I was close to a general breakdown.

"Then my husband got me a bottle of Tanlac and after I had used two bottles I noticed that my stomach felt better and that the gas didn't bother me like it used to and I got better and better all the time till now I am not troubled in any way. I can just eat whatever I like and have no trouble digesting a good square meal and my nerves are in fine shape. I feel just like a little child and get up in the morning feeling refreshed.

"After using five bottles of Tanlac my strength has come back to me and I am not bothered with constipation any more and I have gained ten pounds in weight. In fact, I just feel terrific well. I am now a great believer in Tanlac and I would advise every one I will meet to use it. I will be glad that I have told it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

MISS CRAFT WILL AID IN RENDITION

Miss Marcella Craft, famed American prima donna, has arrived at Berkeley and participated today in the final rehearsal of the "Stabat Mater," Rossini's oratorio, to be given its ninth annual Good Friday rendition in the Greek theater at the University of California tomorrow.

Miss Craft has not previously sung in the Greek theater, but was distinctly pleased with the prospect and with the acoustic properties of the great theater when she first made vocal test of it.

Paul Stelndorff, director of the production, in order to afford the audience (tomorrow) additional audition of Miss Craft's singing, has added to the concert first portion of the program an aria for her, the "I will extol Thee," from Costa's "Orchestra." Orchestral numbers in this first part will include the dirge from Edward MacDowell's "Egyptienne Suite" and the lullaby from Beethoven's second symphony.

Familiar with the part through recent participation in the Worcester, Mass., festival where Rossini's work was sung, Miss Craft was able to fit at once upon her arrival at the quarter, which includes also Miss Lucy Van De Mark, contralto; Hugh J. Williams, tenor, and Lieutenant Henry I. Perry, bass.

Supporting the quartet will be a chorus of 200 voices which Stelndorff has selected from the Berkeley Orchestra society, the Wednesday Morning Choral club of this city and other musical organizations about the bay as well as talented individuals. The orchestra consists of sixty pieces, many of whom have played in the former productions in the Greek theater.

PAUL DICKEY TO HEAD ORPHEUM BILL

Paul Dickey, actor, playwright and dramatist, comes next week to the Oakland Orpheum. He comes in the "Lincoln Highwayman," an original affair that will probably be of special interest to Oakland, the western end of the Lincoln Highway.

Charles Irwin, in "Comin' Through the Rye," adds a novel touch to next week's bill.

Agnes Berri and Irene Jonani, stars of the Chicago and Boston grand opera companies, will appear in a musical offering. These beautiful girls can act as well as sing.

Sam Adams and J. P. Griffith have a humorous idea that makes a vaudeville act. The Three Hicket Brothers present a lively song and dance number. Helen Scholander appears in a musical attraction. The Fanning Troupe has some very clever work.

This week Eddie Foy and the Younger Foy's are offering "Shumway in New York" to crowd houses. The cast includes Kirksmith Sisters, a wonderful family of beautiful girls who play almost everything to music; Celeste May, the versatile songstress and laugh maker; the McIntyre, marksmen; and Hobson's whimsy. Two other good things on the bill, and the Orpheum box office and the Broadway box office at the Orpheum are crowded with patrons as a result.

"THE BRAND" IS AMERICAN THRILLER.
Rex Beach's drama of the frozen northland, "The Brand," commenced a four-day run at the Orpheum theater yesterday. This intense and unusual melodramatic production exceeds anything of the previous series of successes of the brilliant author, so well known to Americans.

"The Brand" tells a powerful story of adventure, love, hate and revenge, the scenes of which are laid in the picture of a frozen northland. The story is told by a man who has lived through the scenes of all real blood and women who have the courage and hardihood to brave the dangers of frontier life and the terror of a winter.

The cast appearing in the drama is an exceptionally good one and includes Kay Carroll, Russell Simpson, Robert McKim, Robert Kunkel and Mary Jane Irving. The musical score arranged by John Wharry Lewis for this production and played by his orchestra reflects every emotion of the characters appearing on the screen.

A special musical feature enjoyed last night was a solo by "Cavetto," played by Janni Papageorgiou.

"THE LOVE LIAR"
BOOKED AT T. AND D.
Crane Wilbur is bringing "The Love Liar" back to Oakland, beginning today. The play has been running for four days on the stage of the T. and D. theater at the head of his own company. Wilbur is a successful writer. "The Love Liar" is a comedy drama of contrasted innocence and sophistication. "Who Cares?" and "The Drifters" are the musical program remains in the hands of Clarence Heywood, the noted comedienne, and Signet C. Macrell's 25 master musicians.

Constance Thalmage offers one of the most notable character studies ever seen on the screen in "Who Cares?" The portrayal is dual inasmuch as the actor first appears as the character of a young man and then as the personification of sophistication. The story is that of a young bride who is deceived for social conventions at times borders on the shocking.

"The Lion and the Mouse" and Mary Miles Minter will appear in "The Intrusion of Isabelle." The story is that of a young bride who is deceived for social conventions at times borders on the shocking.

"MAGGIE PEPPER" IS ON FRANKLIN SCREEN.
Elliot Dexter and Ethel Clayton appear in Charles Klein's famous stage play, "Maggie Pepper," at the Franklin until Saturday.

It's a pepper story of present-day department store life, and a girl who could handle them all, from the cheap masses to the owner of the store. Pepper's name was in "Don't Change Your Husband." Tully Marshall is another favorite in the cast.

On the same program a Vitaphone cartoon, a Paramount picture, a cartoon and News Weekly are shown.

"OH, JOHNNY" IS BROADWAY FEATURE.
"Oh, Johnny," with Louis Brennan, former Oakland stock actor in the role, will be shown for the first time in this city at the Broadway theater today. Brennan needs no introduction to Oakland. He appeared here in many comedies and dramas. His greatest success was in "Damaged Goods," in which he played the physician. Damaged Goods eventually found its way to the screen, and Brennan was chosen for the same role.

"Oh, Johnny" is another Brennan success. It is a Broadway picture just released. Through considerable expense, the Broadway theater management was able to secure it for presentation at that house first. "Oh, Johnny" will be seen here for two days only.

Toda's program is doubly attractive because of the presence on it of Gladys Brockwell in "The Forbidden Room." The star has the strongest dramatic role of her career in this feature.

IDORA PARK TO STAGE CHAPEAU REVIEW.
Oakland's annual chapeau review, to be staged at Idora Park on Easter Sunday, promises to outshine in color, splendor and brilliancy anything of its kind that has been seen in the bay region.

Hundreds of young women have declared their intention of participating in the event, which this year will be in the nature of an all-day affair. Among the women who will take part in the review are society women, college and school girls.

This year Idora's chapeau review will be featured with the making of motion pictures of the young women who participate in the event. The making of colored motion pictures may also be a part of the day's program.

Besides the special features of Easter Sunday at Idora the usual amusement concessions will be available for park patrons, with the exception of the aerobics offering the greatest appeal to the picnic-goers. Idora's swimming pool will also afford recreation. Aquatic sports are a leading feature.

Father of First War Hero of Yuba Dies
MARYSVILLE, April 17.—Lewis McCurry, resident of Wheatland, died in a hospital here yesterday after a short illness. McCurry was a native of Missouri, 55 years of age, and had resided at Wheatland for the last fifteen years. He leaves a widow and four daughters. McCurry was the father of Lewis McCurry Jr., the first soldier of Yuba county to lose his life on the battlefield of Iwo Jima.

"MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS" CHARM AT FULTON

The refreshing atmosphere, the quaint characters and the radiant good cheer and genial humor of "Mother Carey's Chickens" are combining to provide delightful entertainment for nightly throngs at the Fulton playhouse.

Auto Louisa Wiggins' beautiful story delighted many thousands of customers and has delighted as many more. It abounds in amusing situations and dialogue and carries the audience away from the rush and roar of the modern city to the charm of the peaceful, rural, old-fashioned homes in the New England hills among the plain, homely but delightful denizens of that region. It is a thoroughly satisfying play, as refreshing as it is entertaining.

Jane Urban as "Nancy," Paul Harvey as the rich young "Tom," Will Lloyd as the school teacher, Frank Barker as the "Mother Carey," Lucille Webster as "Mrs. Popham," and the balance of the cast, including the children's chorus, present characterizations that are as vivid and impressive as they are entertaining and exceedingly funny.

Maude Fulton is to appear next week at the Fulton in the first presentation of her new play, "The Girl Who Stays," a comedy-drama which is a story of love and dramatic situations, with the tale of out-of-door ranch life and primitive customs of the West.

Charles Ray, trending with apprehension, goes after the gunmen in "The Sheriff's Son," at the Kinema this week. "The Sheriff's Son" is a story of a young man who is a cowboy but who is not a cowboy when he is in the city. He is a cowboy when he is in the city, but he is not a cowboy when he is in the city.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain milled coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, and easy to manage. It takes out every particle of dust dirt and dandruff. Advertisement.

AD MEN TO SEND BIG DELEGATION

The Oakland Advertising Club will this year send the largest of all delegations to the convention of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association to be held at Portland, June 8 to 11, and to the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at New Orleans in early fall, according to K. Leroy Hamman, president of the club.

Arrangement for the entertainment of delegates have been practically completed by the Portland Ad Club, according to advice received today by President Hamman.

The receipts of the Oakland Advertising Club's Ad Masque to be held at the civic auditorium Saturday evening, May 3, will be devoted to defraying the expenses of these delegations, and President Hamman says that Oakland will receive a large amount of publicity as a result.

TICKETS ARE BOOSTED.

Ticket sales for the Ad Masque are way ahead of expectations this year, according to A. T. Goldman, chairman of the committee on admissions and sales.

This is due to the fact that a number of organizations and groups have entered the competition for the prizes offered by the club for the group or organization selling the largest and second largest number of tickets. A first prize of $100 and a second prize of $50 has been posted by the club and in addition to these two prizes, twenty-two Boy Scouts will each receive a week's vacation at the Boy Scout camp. These prizes will be distributed to the boy in each troop of Scouts who sells the highest number of tickets. The prizes were put up by the club in conjunction with Scout Executive P. J. Hill of the local Boy Scouts' organization.

FRESNO CELEBRATION.

The local Advertising Club will also send a big delegation to Fresno to participate in the celebration of "Raisin Day" in that city April 30. Also the club will have an attractive float in the parade there to advertise the Ad Masque at the Civic Auditorium here. The people of Fresno will reciprocate by attending the Ad Masque in Oakland.

The joint celebration of the festival day of each city was arranged at a meeting in Fresno late yesterday between a committee of the Raisin Day Festival Association of Fresno and the Oakland Ad Club. The members of the Oakland Ad Club present were R. C. Bitterman and Oliver Kehrlein.

Y. M. C. A. Softens Russian Hardships

OMSK, Siberia, April 17.—D. T. Head, of Davenport, Iowa, who is in charge of the western district of the American Young Men's Christian Association work in Siberia, has returned to Omsk after a visit to the battle front and reports that the Y. M. C. A. is doing everything possible to lighten the hardships of the soldiers. Two American secretaries are working here, reports the fighting line. They are H. L. Thakham, of Pomona, California, who is at Tiflis, and C. W. Fries, recently graduated from Northwestern University at Chicago, who has a ship car further north on the line. Mr. Fries brought the first Y. M. C. A. supply train out of Vladivostok.

Twenty-five American secretaries are now serving in the western Siberia zone and have organized two camps. A general supply department is now being organized for the local purchase of butter, cheese and general dairy products, for which Siberia is famous, but which the soldiers have difficulty in obtaining.

Ladies' Relief Plans Carnival For Month of June

A happy day is ahead for the Ladies' Relief Society and those interested in its welfare when, in place of the annual spring fiesta, there will be held a water carnival on Lake Merritt, one day in June or perhaps the first of July, when the weather promises being ideal for such an occasion. The idea originated with Mrs. Horatio Bonestell, who incidentally is general director of activities for Guni Day (May 3), when several hundred mounds and nations will sell the confection for the benefit of the society—the carnival to be afternoon and evening. Varied booths for amusement and refreshment will dot the shores of the lake, and at night the brilliantly lighted and floral decked floats will present a beautiful spectacle.

Committees are soon to be appointed to direct the festal one of the delightful affairs of the summer season looked forward to by society. Mrs. Bonestell has appointed captains of Guni Day, while Mrs. Frank Robinson and more than a hundred and fifty of the younger girls will canvass the downtown district. Under her will serve the lieutenants and their assistants.

Mrs. Horatio Bonestell and Mrs. Frank Robinson will arrange the business details and will have headquarters in the center of the town, to be announced later.

Sunday, the day following, will be baseball day, when Mrs. William Thornton White and her assistants will sell gum at the ball park. On Friday, May 3, Mills College and the University of California will be canvassed. Mrs. Harry East Miller will have charge of the drive at Mills.

Mrs. James Dunn of Alameda has been assigned the territory covering the Encinal City. Mrs. Frank Watson the Hotel Oakland and Mrs. Jessie G. Eccleston and Mrs. A. Merril Claremont districts.

MISS RUTH ROBINSON TO WED NEBRASKAN

At a handsomely appointed tea given by Mrs. George W. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Alderson of Hillgass avenue, Berkeley, the engagement was announced of Miss Ruth Robinson, Berkeley belle, and Stewart E. Clear of Lincoln, Nebraska. Miss Robinson is one of the popular members of the Chi Omega sorority and attended the University of California for some time. Her fiancé is a member of the D. U. society of the University of Nebraska.

The Alderson home in the College city was adorned with a profusion of lovely spring blossoms this afternoon, a fitting setting for the happy of younger girls assembled. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. L. Alderson, her mother; Mrs. Richard Shaw of Alameda and Mrs. George W. Robinson.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. George W. Robinson of Regent street, Berkeley. The wedding is to be an event of the very near future. Mr. Clear was in the Air Service of the U. S. A., and received his ground training at the University of California, and it is thought that the pretty romance had its origin during the period of the war.

Another college romance brought to light yesterday was that of Miss Ruth Griffith, Kappa Gamma Gamma, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Griffith of Claremont and Captain Leslie Einstein, U. S. A. The wedding is to take place in June and the home of the army officer and his bride will be in Fresno. Miss Griffith is a graduate of the University of California and later a member of the faculty of Miss Morrison's school in San Francisco.

Captain Einstein has just returned from overseas. He is a banker of Fresno and has extensive land interests in that section of the country.

Mrs. Harry Spencer entertained with a babies' party Monday afternoon, fourteen of the little ones enjoying an Easter party in honor of the first birthday anniversary of the hostess' daughter, Elizabeth Corinne Spencer. Spring blossoms and Easter favors, together with a handsome birthday cake bearing the single candle were pretty features of the afternoon.

PIEDMONT MATRON TO PRESIDE AS HOSTESS

Mrs. Alice Ransome will entertain Wednesday afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Isabel Nason, fiancée of Clinton Worden. Mrs. Ransome was Miss Helene Worden before her marriage. Since Miss Nason is to become the bride of Clinton Worden, June 7, a number of lovely affairs are planned in her honor prior to that date.

Mrs. Thomas Mulvey, Darby, presided as hostess this afternoon at a prettily appointed tea which she gave in honor of Mrs. Emerson McMillan Butterworth (Mary Sullivan), who has come from her home in Arizona to pay a visit to her mother, Mrs. Howard Sullivan, of Berkeley. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur L. Adams, mother of the hostess, who assisted her daughter in receiving, together with Mrs. Henry Kennedy Jackson, sister of Mrs. Dargie.

On account of Holy Week the card party which was to have been given by members of the Claremont club has been postponed until April 22, when an elaborate affair is planned for that evening at the clubhouse, 214 Millcrest road.

Monday evening, May 7, is the date set for the annual meeting and election of officers, this to be followed by an hour or two of dancing and supper.

Lieutenant Frank Ogden, son of the late Judge Frank B. Ogden and Mrs. Ogden, has arrived from Siberia on a month's leave. He will be the guest of his mother for that time and will be welcomed home by many friends. Lieutenant Ogden has been serving in the army for some months.

Formal announcement was made this week of the engagement of Miss Blanche Rose Arendt, of Pleasanton, and Karl James Pride, youngest son of George M. Pride. The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arendt, of Pleasanton. She is a petite brunette and accomplished musician and has many friends in equal circles of both Pleasanton and Berkeley.

Pride, who was a lieutenant in the army, returned a few weeks ago from overseas service and has just received his discharge. He formerly attended the San Mateo Union High school. The wedding will be an event of the coming year. Miss Arendt is a granddaughter of Mrs. Rose Arendt, who resides at the Claremont hotel.

Floral Beauty Features Club Luncheon

By GEORGE G. BORDWELL

Twentieth Century Club of Berkeley outlines herself in her annual luncheon on Tuesday. Two hundred and fifty members and guests sat down at 1 o'clock to a dainty satisfying luncheon, served at tables that were a dream of beauty. Twentieth Century has custom all her own in the way of decorating. For each table a hostess is appointed, upon whom falls the task of decorating her table and providing the place cards. This gives room for much originality, and it is a fact that there was not one table among the large number that did not show thought and work and, above all, exquisite taste. Naturally flowers of spring and summer held first place; gold baskets were used on all tables to hold the flowers. Waxy begonias of every shade of coral—marginals that ran the gamut of color from indigo and blue to the warm shades—all the lovely new blue flowers that make Berkeley's gardens things of wonder to the Easterner—these and many others were combined in such a way that each place the dining room looked like the spring opening of some French millinery shop.

At the president's table, presided over by Mrs. Frederick Arthur, presiding president, were seated the following women whose names have spelled success for the clubs they represented:

Miss Belle Garretto, the new president of Adelphi; and Mrs. Mildred Husbands, the retiring president; Mrs. S. S. Johnson of Town and Gown; Mrs. Cecil Mark of Corwin; Mrs. E. L. Mott, Association of Collegiate Alumnae; Mrs. George B. Preston, Glenview Woman's Club; Miss Theresa Russell of the Oakland Club; Mrs. H. L. Rodgers of Hill and Valley; Mrs. A. E. Beebe of Park Boulevard Woman's Club; Mrs. Oscar Maillard Bennett of the Speech Arts Association; Mrs. Ida Blochman of the Berkeley Civic Center; Mrs. A. P. Blaisdell, Tea Club of San Francisco; Miss Jessica Leo Briggs of Laurel Hall, Mrs. Walter H. Nash, the new president of the twentieth century.

Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, who read "The Lost Silk Hat" after luncheon, was seated at Mrs. Athearn's right. Fanny Bailey Scott contributed a group of songs that were ordered again and again. Altogether it was a very beautiful and successful affair, and Mrs. Athearn declared that all credit was due to the committee on arrangements, which was composed of the following members: Mrs. S. A. Armstrong, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. Philip Hunt, Mrs. J. M. Hunt, Mrs. L. W. Volcott and Mrs. H. L. Delaney.

JOY'S JULI PROGRAM

Three sections of the Rock Ridge Woman's Club combined to present the program Tuesday at the regular meeting of the club. The musical program of charm and variety was presented by Mrs. N. A. Hawkins, Mrs. H. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. L. Andre, Mrs. W. P. L. Hornmedell, Mrs. A. Black and Mrs. Herman Truitt. Other numbers were Spanish dances in costume by Misses Fern and Doris Brasch, a paper on the surrender of the German fleet by Mrs. Katherine Goodall, reciting by Mrs. Mary Gillett and a book review by Mrs. J. V. Toland. It was impossible for the president, Mrs. George Riggs, to be present at this meeting, as she was one of the guests of honor at the Twentieth Century luncheon.

W. P. Frick Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. J. W. Evans president, will hold an important business meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Lockwood School Mothers' Club has arranged for a special program for its meeting on Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. George Speller, president, will read "The Divine Tragedy," the selection of which was made because of Holy Week. The school orchestra will contribute music and Mrs. K. Vandewater will speak on newspaper work and the relation of the club members to the club editors.

LELLE WOMEN TACKLE BIG SUBJECTS

Subjects of national import have been selected for discussion by the members of the Laying Issues section of Lelie for their meeting tomorrow. Endings of the Laying Table, "Psychological Tests for College Entrance," the issues of the work in America and the Victor Loan will all be considered by the women. Mrs. L. C. Crockett, meet twice a month to try to keep up with the news-papers and what they signify.

COUNTY FEDERATION MAY BECOME FACT

It is an old story that of county federation among the women's clubs of California—one that has been brought up at conventions from time to time—one that certain counties have made come true. All county federations and the counties that have them say that they are eminently successful—have been formed as an entirely separate organization, having no official relationship with the district and state federations.

During the district convention this year throughout the State the district has been busy with the thought out to the end that the state constitution will come up for revision at the state convention in May. By the revision district presidents shall have the power to organize county federations in her own district. Each county federation shall be governed by the constitution and by-laws of its district, but may adopt by-laws for its own guidance which do not conflict with the district constitution and by-laws. The president of the county federation shall also be a vice-president of the district.

The new organization, it is thought, will give a new impetus to club life. Placer county, which has a well organized county federation, declares that the women of that county value the county conventions, as they enable the women to get together in a far more intimate understanding of the community problems than the district conventions, which of necessity cannot be attended by all women.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

Resolutions of sympathy were formulated by the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs at its meeting this week, to be sent to the family of Mrs. Phoebe Hoarst and to the National Federation of Mothers' Club. Mrs. Hoarst, it will be recalled, was the founder of the national organization, and it was through her generosity that it—like many another power for good, was kept alive until it became strong enough to take care of itself.

The Oakland Federation affiliated itself with the Big Sister movement, in that it decided at its last meeting to elect a delegate who would attend all meetings and who would act upon the advisory council of the Big Sisters. It decided also to make a monthly contribution to the Public Welfare League.

A nominating committee, which will meet next week, was appointed and comprises the following women: Mrs. J. W. Evans, chairman; Mrs. W. E. Leber, Mrs. W. D. Bunker, Mrs. O. P. Cole and Mrs. M. W. Walsh.

MRS. WILDER TO HAVE INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Saturday afternoon a group of the younger matrons are to share the hospitality of Mrs. Percy Wilder at her home in Linda Vista. The occasion will be an informal luncheon.

Members of the Hawthorne branch of the Baby Hospital Association are to meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Turrell. The branch this year is making kerchiefs, towels, pillow slips and such for the annual bazaar of the association, which comes in the fall.

The personnel of the Monday Bridge club will be entertained next week by Mrs. Percy Wilder at her home, the gathering to be somewhat smaller than usual since a few of the members are out of town.

"Kind to Animals" Week Here Planned

Plans for the observance in this city of "Be Kind to Animals Week," which begins next Monday, are being outlined. Those who are most actively identified with the work which has for its object humane treatment for dumb animals urge all citizens to lend their assistance in making the occasion a success. Efforts are being put forth to eliminate all cruelties to which animals have been subjected. Those who are preparing the program for next week express the belief that much good will be accomplished through the plan of having a week set aside each year in the interest of animals. In this way, they say, a campaign of education can be conducted.

NATIONALIZED WOMEN DENIED BY RED FLIER

VLADIVOSTOK, March 13.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—A Russian aviator who deserted the Red Guard army in January and flew into the lines of the All-Russian forces has described the conditions then prevailing in soviet Russia to a member of the British Mission here as follows:

The nationalization of women, he said, was untrue. Some churches had been converted into theaters. Only the "intelligentsia" went to church. There were no private stores or shops; all were under the control of the soviets and purchasers had to show cards authorizing them to buy. Army officials had no distinguishing uniform but wore a star on the cap. Officers of the old regime were compelled to act as instructors in military schools, their work being strictly watched by "commissars" and their families held as hostages to guarantee satisfactory conduct.

RED ARMY CARED FOR.
The soviet authority had nationalized all supplies, including warm clothing which was being furnished only to the Red Army. The Bolsheviks were carrying on agitation in all countries as Lenin's only hope for perpetuation of his control and of Bolshevik rule. Lenin and Trotsky were not in complete accord. Trotsky wished to restore much of the old military regime, including saluting and a measure of discipline. Many Russian prisoners returning from Germany had joined the Red Army as their only chance to live.

Power of the railway "commissars" was unlimited. Railways were badly operated. Employees spent much time holding meetings. There was no coal and little wood. Workmen drink all sorts of substitutes for vodka. Snow was well lighted but most cities and towns were inadequately lighted.

Mass Meeting to "Save Tidelands" S. P. Is Charged With Obstruction

The citizens of Oakland are invited to attend a mass meeting at the city hall tomorrow (Friday), at 4 o'clock, to consider the tidelands bill now before the legislature.

This is a very important measure to the citizens of Oakland. The city's interests should be protected and now is the time to express public sentiment and to urge our representatives to safeguard the public interest as against the interests of private holders.

The City Council has passed resolutions favorable to this bill; also the Merchants' Exchange, the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations. Let the citizens' mass meeting back them up enthusiastically.

W. E. GIBSON,
FRANK BILGER.
Representing Citizens' Committee.

Called in furtherance of a general public campaign to obtain passage of the tidelands bill, the Assembly adjourns on Friday, April 19, to give Oakland title to submerged lands in the estuary, a public mass meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the council chambers in the city hall.

This is one of three moves in the final fight for the tidelands bill, which has passed the Assembly and is now being held up in a Senate committee at Sacramento, and in which City Attorney H. L. Hagan alleges Southern Pacific opposition. Petitions are being circulated by a special committee, appointed yesterday at the preliminary organization meeting of the Citizens' Committee on Water Front Legislation, formed to attempt to obtain final action on the Oakland bill.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE.
The meeting was called yesterday afternoon at the preliminary session in the Hotel Oakland, W. E. Gibson, Frank W. Bilger and C. H. J. Truman being named to handle the affair, and A. Youngblood, W. A. Knowles and H. L. Hagan being named to supervise the circulation of petitions.

The organization meeting yesterday day was attended by members representing the city governments of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, the Civic Association, Merchants' Exchange and Chamber of Commerce. The matter is now being taken up by the city councils of Berkeley, Alameda, Emeryville, Albany and Richmond, on the ground that, if the bill does not pass, it will establish a precedent that may endanger city holdings in those cities.

"LANDS IN DANGER"
"The city government of Oakland has done all it can do, and the last hope to get what we need to obtain final control of our water front lies with the people," said Hagan, in outlining the situation before the committee. "The bill has been held up in a Senate committee since March 7—in my opinion because of railroad opposition. This is a danger to every city in the state owning Pacific coast waterfront. The Southern Pacific can use its established state policy when it happens to own land on a harbor, it is only one more step to have lands now granted taken from the cities. The Southern Pacific is afraid the city will proceed against it in the case of lands it is now occupying on the estuary without, in my belief, sufficient title."

"At first we did not think in Berkeley that we were affected by an Oakland proposition," said City Attorney E. J. Sinclair of Berkeley. "But now I see that every city in the state is affected. Our city council will have this matter before it at once." City Manager C. E. Hewes of Alameda said that he would at once obtain action by his body. On the suggestion of Joseph E. Camp, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, it was urged that all civic and commercial bodies at once address wires to local legislators, demanding that the bill be taken out of the commerce and navigation committee and placed before the Senate.

PASSED BY ASSEMBLY
The bill, over which there has been a contest of weeks' standing, was introduced into the Assembly by Leon Gray, passed that body, and went to the Senate together with bills making similar concessions to Oakland (on the western water front), Berkeley and Emeryville. "It was said in the committee," said Hagan, "that there was trouble about granting rights to submerged lands before private property. There was no trouble in the other bills—just in this case, where the railroad opposition developed. The same thing happened in 1911 and in 1917. Then it was said that the land involved in the estuary amounted to nothing—Senator Reed said he thought it too insignificant for the city to bother over. As a matter of fact a great deal of land—some 200 feet deep, as in the case of some of this railroad property—is involved."

"ALWAYS STATE POLICY"
"It has always been the policy of the state to grant these rights to cities. All the land around this has been granted us. But the Southern Pacific is allowed to come in and say to the legislature that this one bit must be held out."

The matter came up in Sacramento last week before the Alameda county legislative delegation, and after the meeting the local assemblymen held that it was for the four local senators—Anderson, A. H. Reed, Frank Carr and Frank Olin, to decide.

C. H. J. Truman, president of the Merchants' Exchange, was appointed chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and City Attorney Sinclair of Berkeley secretary. After the mass meeting tomorrow the committee will meet again at the call of the chair.

Perkins, both of San Francisco. The sixty-first annual convocation of California's Grand Chapter of the Knights Templar held the first session this morning of the two-day meeting. ## MYSTIC SHRINE MEMBERS GIVE FUNNY SKETCH Ashmole Temple of the Mystic Shrine enjoyed an interesting address by J. E. Chandler, an amusing sketch by members at the conclusion of its monthly business meeting last night. Chandler told of European conditions in a historical light, especially of the penitentiary of strikes on the continent and the democratic evolution which had accompanied it. The sketch which followed depicted the arrest of the arch-villain of the evening, a character which was assumed by Frank A. Rittigstein, by no less a policeman than Chief of Police J. H. Neelan. The complications which preceded and followed the arrest were productive of a hilarious reception by the members.

Among those in the cast were Judge Lin Church, District Attorney Ezra Decoto, Joseph Lancaster, Frank Kennedy, Archie Tart, Louis Orrie, Alex G. Du France, Louis A. Albert and a number of others. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the entertainment.

C. H. J. Truman, president of the Merchants' Exchange, was appointed chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and City Attorney Sinclair of Berkeley secretary. After the mass meeting tomorrow the committee will meet again at the call of the chair.

ARE YOU WEAK AND NERVOUS?

Flaxolyn is Nature's own Remedy. Contains no iron, no narcotics, no alcohol, nothing harmful.

WHY Are You Weak? WHY Are You Nervous?

Your run-down-condition, in all probability, is due to the nervous strain brought on by the war.

Nothing can be more nerve-racking than to have a son or a brother in the Service. And if you had no relative or friend at the front then perhaps the payments on your bonds caused you to worry. Or, maybe, it was business troubles.

While the war was on and excitement was high you didn't notice the terrific strain your nerves were undergoing. But now that it is all over you feel the effects. You are weak. Perhaps you tire easily. You have lost flesh, maybe, and feel generally run down, or you suffer from biliousness and indigestion.

Here is Nature's own remedy. A practicing physician high up in his profession worked 20 years on the formula. He has infinite faith in Nature. He has no faith in iron, narcotics and alcohol. He believes them positively injurious in many cases—so do many good physicians including perhaps your family doctor.

So his remedy, Flaxolyn, contains no mineral, no alcohol, nothing injurious, nothing but Nature's roots and herbs. He says: "Nature's medicine can heal the sick or nothing can."

We want you to read the Flaxolyn formula. It contains fresh, edible roots, herbs, seeds and fruits, sun dried and kept absolutely pure in Nature form.

Its guaranteed ingredients are: baked flax seed, Spanish licorice roots, vegetable charcoal, Culvers roots, juniper berries, African ginger roots, cardamom seeds, Gentian roots, Chinese rhubarb, dandelion roots, Greek Valerian roots, California bark.

Price $1.00 per package

If your druggist hasn't Flaxolyn send us his name and $1.00. A full size package of Flaxolyn will be sent you postpaid.

Shot Fired Into Home; Small Boys Blamed

Small boys playing in the wooded country around 804 Waino Vista are believed to have been responsible for firing a small bullet into the residence of George G. Chase, vice-president of the Kohler-Chase company, who lives at that place. The bullet was found on the floor in one of the rooms of the house yesterday morning by R. A. Donaldson who, with Mrs. Donaldson, is occupying the home while Mr. and Mrs. Chase are in New York. Only Donaldson and a servant were in the house. Donaldson says he thought he heard a shot the evening before but paid no attention to it. The two children were playing in the yard at the time. They said they did not remember hearing or seeing anything unusual. The bullet had come through the window but was evidently well spent by the time it reached the house, say the police.

McKay carried a military police badge and a heavy revolver.

PERSHING ROAD NOW PLANNED ACROSS NATION

The first road of an ocean-to-ocean highway, which will rival the Lincoln highway, was received here today from Secretary D. E. Watkins of the California State Automobile Association, who is representing California in a conference of automobile men and good road boosters being held in Lincoln, Neb.

The route as mapped out by the national organization is as follows: Oakland, Reno, Winnemucca, Wells, Wendover, Salt Lake, Ogden, Cheyenne, Lincoln, St. Joseph, Mo., Cincinnati, Washington, New York. The conference named the following officers: Berton A. George, Lincoln, Neb., president; Walter S. Whitten, Lincoln, secretary; Clinton Cowen, Columbus, O., vice-president; L. A. Nares, San Francisco, vice-president. These officers will compose the executive committee, and each state later will name a director of the permanent organization, which will immediately launch a nationwide campaign.

Including the District of Columbia the road covers sixteen states, as follows: California, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey and New York. The road will be called the Pershing highway.

The road not only connects the towns in which General Pershing was born, married, educated, but the port from which he sailed for service in the Philippines and France, also territory in which the most important and interesting history of the entire nation has occurred.

Young Auto Speeders Will Lose Licenses
A new form of punishment for youths who are unable to observe the speed laws was announced this morning by Police Judge Samuels. Hereafter all such offenders will have their licenses to drive a car taken away from them for varying periods, depending upon the gravity of the offense.

Judge Samuels put into operation his policy by taking the license card of Simon Alaslar, 185 Fifty-eighth street, for two months. Alaslar had been arrested for speeding.

LECTURE ON LONDON
"Dear Old London" will be the subject of a lecture tonight by Rev. Charles S. Price of Oakland, speaking in the auditorium of the Oakland Branch Library at San Pablo avenue and Fifty-eighth street. The lecture is one of the course for adults being given by direction of the Board of Education.

AUTO SPEED LIMIT 62 BELOW ZERO IN RAISE IS FAVORED AMERICANS' CAMP

SACRAMENTO, April 12.—A bill by Assemblyman Edmund E. Brown, Jr., to raise the state motor vehicle act to raise from thirty to thirty-five miles an hour the daytime speed limit of automobiles on open highways, was passed by the Senate yesterday, then transmitted to the lower house, from where it was recalled to the upper house on motion by Senator Harris and placed upon file on motion to reconsider.

In addition to the increased speed limit, the bill would make the taking of an automobile without the owner's consent for "joy riding" a felony. Persons driving an automobile when intoxicated would be subject to a fine of $500 to $1,000 or imprisonment of six months to three years, under the provisions of the bill. The measure also increases the salary of the state motor vehicle department superintendent from $3,000 to $3,500 a year; provides state tests for all drivers and licenses issued on condition that the holder of a license shall be subject to a new license plate each year.

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE IS ASKED

A petition for distribution of the $25,841 estate of the late pioneer, Ludovica Ivey, daughter of the Pradys, who at one time owned the land on which the city of Oakland is built, was filed today in the office of County Clerk George B. Moore, executor of the will.

The petition recites that all claims against the estate have been paid with the exception of the federal inheritance tax, which amount has not been determined. The sum of $5,000 is withheld from distribution to cover this item.

The estate consists of $25,841.14 cash in bank and real property to the value of $33,000. The approved gross value was $58,841.26.

The will, dated Jan. 10, 1917, was made by Mrs. Ivey, who died November 3, 1917, and left a son, Mrs. Marie A. Toler, together with two daughters, Mrs. John J. Valentine, and Mrs. John J. Valentine, Jr., who are the surviving children and grandchildren of the individual group share according to their number.

Through his "Gift of gab" and the credulity of a private hotel detective, "C. J. Mitchell," true name unknown, said by the Oakland police to be one of the cleverest forgers in the state, is at large today, after coming within a block of the city prison in the custody of a private detective.

"Mitchell," who is wanted by the Oakland police for a charge of forgery, was arrested in a local saloon by the hotel detective as the man who victimized a San Francisco hotel detective. Mitchell, who is at large today, after coming within a block of the city prison in the custody of a private detective.

"This thing was squared long ago," he informed the hotel man. "The dicks at the city hall will just give you the hunk if you bring me in. Look—have $500 in the Central Bank, right now?"

"I was a mistake," I overheard my account and the checks came back when I found it out and were all paid."

"Mitchell then settled the hotel claim asking the detective to mail the check the hotel man held to a fictitious address he gave and, while the hotel detective was still hesitating, he made a hasty retreat.

DRIVER OF DEATH AUTO DISAPPEARS
Where is Joseph Preston Arthur? The driver of the death car in which Mrs. Mary Stockton and Mrs. Dot Smith were riding before its fatal plunge into the estuary last month, has disappeared from Providence hospital. Whether he has gone back to Waukegan, Illinois, where he has a big wire factory, or whether he is still in Oakland, no one seems to know.

Arthur left the hospital without consulting either his physician or his attorney. Dr. O. D. Hamlin, who has been attending Arthur, has been away in attendance on a medical convention. It was while he was away that the friends removed Arthur from the hospital saying he was being taken to a sanitarium. Dr. Hamlin said he was much surprised to be informed of his patient's disappearance.

Matrimonial Knots, Snarled, Are Untied
Judge Dudley Kinsell officiated today at the ceremony of untangling four matrimonial knots. In each case the husband and wife had been hopelessly knotted and the judge cut it asunder summarily.

W. P. Field told the court that his wife, Ella Field, made him be his own boss, in spite of the fact that he gave her a goodly sum out of his $200 a month earnings. He complained that his wife was allowed to remain in bed, where her breakfast was served, and charged him with the duty of going to suit her pleasure. He was granted a decree.

LIEUT. VALENTINE PERISHES IN RIVER

Lieutenant Dudley B. Valentine, 30 years old, Yale graduate, recently returned from ten months' service in France, was drowned in the Feather river, near his Marysville ranch, yesterday, according to a dispatch received by his mother, Mrs. John J. Valentine, 246 Perry avenue, Piedmont.

Lieutenant Valentine was spending a short leave from the army at his Marysville property. He went swimming in the river, which was joined the ranch, with his uncle, D. R. Blanchard, of Stockton, who was visiting him. Both dove into the river and Lieutenant Valentine came up. Whether he struck a rock on the bottom of the river or whether he had a heart attack on account of the coldness of the water, it is not known. Up to a late hour this afternoon his body had not been recovered.

The dead officer is a son of Mrs. John J. Valentine and the late John J. Valentine, former vice-president of the Wells Fargo Express Company. Besides his mother he is survived by two sisters—Ruth and Ethel—and two brothers—Phillip C., who is a radio sergeant with the American army of occupation in Germany, and John J. Valentine of San Francisco.

S. F. WOULD USE ARROYO HOSPITAL
Recognizing the superiority of the Arroyo Sanatorium, acting Mayor Ralph McLaren of San Francisco today applied to the Alameda county supervisors to ascertain what arrangements, if any, could be made between San Francisco and Alameda county to have the tuberculosis patients of San Francisco treated at Arroyo.

The discussion of the matter was only preliminary and no conclusion was arrived at. The matter was taken up with Superintendent Broderick of the Alameda county hospital and Attorney Harrison I. Robinson of the Institutions Commission to get their views on the subject.

The county has just now let a contract for the completion of $235,600 worth of new buildings at Arroyo, and it is believed by members of the Board of Supervisors that it will be possible to make some arrangements along the lines suggested by Superintendent McLaren.

Says Another Man Wore Wife's Rings
When Mrs. Olive Boyce kicked Reuben W. Boyce, Berkeley fireman, in the eye while he was talking to the baby, he said never a word, according to his testimony in his suit for divorce today before Judge E. C. Robinson. He said the blow knocked him silly and gave him a black eye.

Boyce told the judge that he thought his wife was responsible for the trouble, and expressed the opinion that if he could get away by himself his wife wouldn't kick him. He charged in his complaint that his wife entertained one Walter Beckley too much, and that said Beckley appeared at the fire station wearing Mrs. Boyce's rings, including her wedding ring, the trial is continuing.

SLAYER, SHOT AFTER CRIME, RECOVERING

COLUMBIA, Cal., April 17.—Thomas Woods, who last night shot and killed City Marshal J. M. Scoggins of Colusa and was himself wounded by shots fired by Scoggins and officers who accompanied the marshal, will recover unless unexpected complications develop. Dr. W. T. Rathbun, attending physician, said this morning. Wood is chained to a cot in the county hospital. Three shots took effect on Woods, one of them permanently blinding his right eye.

The shooting occurred when Marshal Scoggins attempted to arrest Woods on a charge of battery perpetrated by Mrs. Jennie Woods, his mother, who said her son had been beating her.

Woods, who was intoxicated, frequently had been before the courts on criminal charges. Sheriff Claude Stanton of Colusa county said today. Fifteen years ago Woods served a term in state prison for an attempt to murder his mother-in-law. Later he served another term on charges preferred by his niece, and when the shooting of Scoggins occurred last night Woods was on bail awaiting trial for an attempt to knife Sheriff Stanton and Policeman Grover Meyer.

Scoggins had been marshal of Colusa for 33 years.

Mothers Urged to Enter Babies in Tribune Show

Puzzle in Domestic Science — A MOTHER OF TWINS HOLDS HER BABIES LIKE THIS — BUT WHAT DOES THE MOTHER OF TRIPLETS DO?? — SEE TRIBUNE BABY EXPO FILMS FOR ANSWER.

Names of War Leaders Popular Among Young Folks These Days

That the patriotic mothers of Alameda county are proud of the achievements of the distinguished leaders in the late war is evidenced by the first names of many of the boy babies who have been registered in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE Baby Exposition.

Yesterday afternoon, two loving mothers—one from sunny Italy, the other from the land of the Joss—each carrying in her arms an immaculately clean and cunningly dressed infant, entered the office of the American theater and expressed their desire to enter the babies in the moving-picture Baby Exposition. The man whose business it is to record the names of all the young entrants, after extending a cordial greeting to the mothers and addressing a few words of that universally spoken and utterly unintelligible language known as baby-talk to the little ones, asked the names of the kiddies. A few moments later, his eyes twinkling with amusement, he carefully wrote.

John Pershing Mascart, Woodrow Wilson Wong Key. Truly democratic and international in aspect are the registrations in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE Moving Picture Baby Exposition that are pouring into headquarters at the American theater since the first announcement of this unique baby show.

NO EXPENSE TO ENTER. Every baby, whether of rich or poor parents, of every country represented in Alameda county, can be entered without expense to the parents and the great interest aroused is attested to by the large registration to date.

Aside from the pleasure every mother will derive from seeing her own "kiddies" in films, there will be many varied, desirable and valuable prizes awarded by the judges to the winners of the various classes. —SE SIDES EVERY BABY REGISTERING WILL GET ABSOLUTELY FREE TWO SPECIAL PRIZES.

Cuthbert, the photographer, has given the choice of any of his specially designed baby photographs to every baby.

Former U. S. Consul to Peru Dies Here

C. H. Caldwell, former consul for the United States in Peru, died here yesterday afternoon. He had been in poor health for a long time. He was appointed consul in 1905 and held that position until 1922, when failing health forced him to retire. For many years Caldwell was confidential agent for the W. R. Grace Steamship Company in San Francisco. Seven days before his death, his daughter, Allen Caldwell, died at the age of 8 years.

Caldwell was born in England 50 years ago. After he resigned as consul he moved here with his family to Santa Cruz. His health had shown some improvement up to about two weeks ago, when he suffered a relapse and was brought to this city. Surviving is a widow, Mrs. Martha M. Caldwell, of Santa Cruz.

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

MRS. HALL, FILM ACTRESS DIVORCED

Mrs. Mary Ten Brock Hall, motion picture actress of San Francisco, mother of May Marsh, the film star, canceled the leading role in the comedy drama in Superior Judge Crocker's court yesterday afternoon, in which she was granted a divorce from William H. Hall, race track man, well known in Oakland when the race track was under the management of the late Deputy Sheriff Darnell of Oakland famous.

Mrs. Hall secured her divorce on testimony that Hall misrepresented his calling to her before their marriage, telling her, according to her testimony, that he was a New York capitalist, whereas he was a race horse owner. She said she left him when she learned the truth.

The real occasion for the separation, according to the gossip about the matter, was the sensational performance of Hall in leaving from the rear platform of a train and making his getaway from the custody of Deputy Sheriff Darnell in 1916.

Hall had been accused of swindling an Oakland man out of $50,000 in connection with a track deal and was arrested in Florida by Darnell. They returned all the way to Oakland, and as the train passed through Fruitvale Hall made a thrilling leap from the rear platform. Before the train could be stopped Hall had disappeared and was not found. Darnell reported the escape and resigned his position as deputy sheriff back for duty until he recaptured his man. To date he has not so reported and is now with the army in France. Hall's whereabouts is still unknown.

Mrs. Hall, who resides at 661 Bush street, was supported in her testimony by another daughter, Mildred Marsh, herself a movie actress. It is said that Mrs. Hall will now return to New York and re-engage in the pictures. She is the grand-daughter of the late Colonel Ten Brock, one of the noted Kentucky horse breeders and racers.

Increased interest is being shown in the one-night-a-week class, which meets every Friday. At room 27 at the school registration is continuing for the various courses, which are among the most complete for adults in the country.

Very Effective Method for Banishing Hairs

(Modes of Today)

At very little cost any woman can rid her face of hairy growths if she will use the delicate treatment. This is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This mixture is spread over the hairy surface for 3 or 5 minutes then rubbed off and the skin washed, when a very trace of hair will have vanished. No harm results from this treatment, but care should be used to buy real delatone.—Advertisement.

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones—

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl moans and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be as happy as a king.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1919

ONE OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Fortunately Mr. David Lloyd George, the British prime minister, has informed the British people of a part of the progress achieved at the Paris peace conference. Through his statement to the House of Commons, which was quoted liberally in yesterday's TRIBUNE and other American newspapers, the people of this country are enabled to get some idea of the international situation. The American delegates to the peace conference have given their fellow countrymen no information.

Mr. Lloyd George responded to a demand of the British people for a statement with admirable frankness and with as much information as it was possible to give. It had been agreed, said the prime minister, that the actual text of the Allied draft of the peace treaty should not be announced until it had been submitted to the enemy commissioners, but despite this fact he was able to give much satisfactory information of a definite character.

First off, Mr. Lloyd George nailed the lying propaganda to the effect that the Russian Bolshevik regime was about to be recognized by the Allied governments. There was no question, he said, of recognizing the Bolsheviks. Such an act had never been proposed and had never been discussed. He also stated that reliable information showed that Bolshevism was gradually waning, breaking down before the relentless force of economic facts.

The Allies have arrived at complete understanding, according to our British informant, on the great fundamental questions that affect the peace agreement with Germany. The Allies have completed the formulation of their demands and it is hoped they will be presented next week. The United States and Europe have not been at variance and the American delegation has viewed with complete understanding and sympathy the peculiar problems and susceptibilities of the European Allies. None of the delegates, he further stated, have ever forgotten what France has gone through, nor had they forgotten to what she was entitled—not merely security against a repetition of the German attack, but to feel a sense of security against it.

If Mr. Lloyd George had gone no further in his statement he had uttered much to reassure an impatient and somewhat apprehensive world. It is cause for the deepest satisfaction that the Allied delegates are in complete agreement upon the fundamental questions of the war settlement, that the American delegates recognized the special nature of Europe's problems, and that a sense of complete security against a repetition of a German attack is to be provided France. This is a guarantee that the Allied conference will continue to a successful conclusion and that a peace which will conserve the fruits of the overwhelming military victory will be imposed on the enemy countries.

As pointed out in the British House of Commons, the many and complex nature of the problems before the peace commissioners involved a tremendous amount of work. But this is now fairly well in hand, and the announcement that the German representatives have been asked to appear at Versailles next week is confirmed. Thus it would seem that the climatological period in the peace negotiations is near and all is well with the Allied nations.

THE MAYORALTY SETTLED.

One of the results of Tuesday's nominating primary was the re-election of Mayor John L. Davis. The mayor received more than a majority of the total vote cast for all the candidates for the office. This eliminates all his opponents in the final election next month. It is some satisfaction that this contest is settled quickly and that there is no longer any doubt about who will head the municipal administration during the next four years.

The people may the more quickly turn to non-political questions for the upbuilding of Oakland and the advancement of the interests of all its citizens. Political differences should be adjourned. Harmony and cooperation may not be possible, but if everyone follows what he honestly believes to be his civic duty some good will result regardless of the absence of harmony. There is much to be done and an opportunity for everybody to exhibit an interest in the welfare of the community.

ACTION REQUIRED.

An analysis of the trade statistics for 1918 shows that 34 per cent, or more than one-third, of the total imports into the United States came from the Far East; that is, from Japan, China, the Philippines and South Sea islands, British Malaya and the Dutch East Indies. Exports to the Orient amounted to 10 per cent of the total exports. About 18 per cent of the total foreign trade of the United States, which for the calendar year of 1918 was approximately nine billion dollars, was connected with the Far East.

The products which we drew in 1918 from the western side of the Pacific ocean were worth three times those which came from Europe. They were worth twice the imports from Latin America. During the same period the value of the exports to Asia and the islands in Asiatic waters was twice that of the exports to Latin America.

Trade with the Far East has increased in value to an extent of 235 per cent since 1914. This is the greatest single percentage increase in any area since the outbreak of the war. With this growth has come certain advantage to the conduct of trans-Pacific trade. Necessary credits have been established in America against which firms in the Far East can draw in the form of manufactures they desire, and the financial element otherwise rendered more favorable. Practically all the dealings have been directly between the Far East and the United States. Thus the European middleman, which was so long an obnoxious handicap to trans-Pacific trade, has been eliminated, at least temporarily.

To maintain this desirable status, to hold the increases that have been achieved and to foster further growth, requires more attention than ever. The transactions of 1918 were largely dictated by war requirements and were conducted despite the excessive ocean freight rates and the scarcity of shipping. But the situation has changed. Trade already is seeking the most hospitable channels. Will Asiatic markets find these channels leading to the United States?

Government neglect and indifference is one of the unfavorable signs of the present. The shipping board still is holding private ships commandeered from Pacific routes. The railroad rates are still arbitrary, discriminatory and unnecessarily high. It is actually cheaper under the present rail schedules to send products from Pittsburg, Pa., to New York City and thence through the Panama Canal to Asia than it is to ship them directly from Pittsburg across the continent by rail to San Francisco or Seattle and thence to the Orient.

The great portion of the trans-Pacific commerce should pass through Pacific ports. Present rail and shipping schedules of freight transportation charges favor the Atlantic Coast and especially the Southern States. International trade will not always yield to sectional politics, and certainly the commerce between the Far East and the United States will not do so in the present delicate economic situation and in a period when all the Allied nations of Europe are feverishly engaged in post-war trade-grabbing campaigns.

Broad vision and intelligent, non-partisan thinking were never so much in demand as at present. Quick action is needed and the national government has practically ceased to function. Was there ever known a governmental condition more regrettably pathetic?

The Roosevelt Permanent Memorial Committee has announced three definite projects for honoring and perpetuating the name and memory of the distinguished American. They are a suitable statue or memorial in Washington, a park at Oyster Bay to ultimately include Sagamore Hill with its historic residence, to be preserved like Mount Vernon, and the endowment of a society to promote and secure the adoption of the policies and ideals for which Theodore Roosevelt contended, and which as President he sought to further. The committee, in starting thus early with a definite and stated purpose which is bound to commend itself, and having membership that the whole country can have faith in, is not likely to encounter any formidable objections to the carrying out of its purposes.

The hurrying world did not pause metaphorically to raise its hat to the passing of a very great scientist, Sir William Crookes, who died April 4, at the advanced age of 87. Probably his fame will not be as acute as that of Thomas A. Edison, through his invention of the incandescent electric lamp, or that of the German scientist Roentgen, whose notable achievement was the X ray; but Crookes' discoveries laid the foundation for both the others. Throughout his long life he added greatly to chemical knowledge. On an important social occasion, to wit, the celebration of his golden wedding, he was acclaimed the greatest chemist then living.

NOTES and COMMENT

Berkeley has been sued for the destruction of Joshua Sykes' gospel tent. It is a serious thing to proceed summarily even in the abolition of nuisances. The legal way around is better and often does not reach the destination, but the short cut is not safe. It would seem that some sluck might be taken up here.

The troubles of restless countries like Korea are laid to the fourteen points and the talk about self-determination, or something like that. This effort to make the President of the United States the goat should not succeed. But it may illustrate in a large way the danger of talking too much.

It is said with some reason that had the indemnity been fixed at fifty billions immediately the armistice was signed Germany might have thought she was getting off easy, but after more than five months she has had so much time to think it over and to take account of the squabbling among the victors that she balks now at half that sum. A vast illustration of the danger in delay.

The Pittock estate of some eight millions, a part of which is the Portland Oregonian, is to get into the courts through effort of the heirs to break the will. The Assembly has refused to take action looking to the abolition of the State Market Commission and to the establishing of state markets for fish, dairy and agricultural products. Whence it is to be concluded that Commissioner Westcott has emerged from the investigations and criticisms unscathed. Some of the astuteness that enabled him to do this might now be directed to straightening out the fish tangle, it would seem.

It is possible that the alternative sentence of a term in jail or forced abstention from driving for a time will stop reckless driving, but it is not a very drastic punishment. What is needed is at least as severe a reckoning as a hapless angler gets who catches a trout out of season.

North Dakota has been attracting a good deal of attention recently in novel departures in government, the very latest being the election at Fargo of a woman chief of police. The theory seems to be that the men having had a good chance and failed, it is time to try some other way.

A German is reported in a despatch as saying that Alsace and Lorraine would join France. Very true. But what about Alsace and Lorraine? ## JUGO-SLAVIA

Its Problems Suggests One Very Vital Period of American History.

The problem of organization facing the new kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes (Jugo-Slavia) is compared to that confronting the thirteen American States after the Revolution and before the adoption of the Constitution was adopted in a bulletin just issued by the National Geographic Society.

This is the fourth in a series of geographic news bulletins dealing with the races of Europe, based on communication to the society from Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor.

"To unite all the Jugo-Slavs has long been the aspiration of leaders among the Croats and Slovenians as well as those in the Kingdom of Serbia. They wished to include the Bosnians, Helvets, Croats, Slovenians, Dalmatians and Slavonians, former Austro-Hungarian, or still earlier Turkish subjects, as well as the independent South Slavic State of Montenegro.

"The world war has extended this desire, except that it no longer includes Bulgaria. When Bulgaria allied herself with the Turks, who through centuries had trampled upon the Slavs, and sent her armies to work their savage slave feeling upon the Serbs, she outraged Slav feeling.

"One obstacle to federal union is difference of church communion. Most of the Jugo-Slavs are Eastern Orthodox, the remainder, except those who are Moslems, Roman Catholics. Obligations to Islam rest lightly on the Moslems. Moslems will eventually join one or the other church.

"The Roman Church has allowed the Dalmatian, Slavonian and Croatian Catholics, almost unintermittently since their conversion, to use the Latin instead of the Latin liturgy, and to employ their Glagolitic, or Cyrillic Slavic, alphabet. Against this custom there has been, during the last generation, foreign protest, based on political grounds. An attempt, however, to enforce the Latin ritual would probably swing the dissident Jugo-Slavs into the Eastern Orthodox Church.

"Another obstacle to federal union is inexperience in self-government on the part of the several groups. Except the Montenegrins, and the Serbians in the larger part of royal Serbia, all the groups have been under the blighting domination of alternating foreign masters, mainly Turks, Austrians and Magyars, since the Middle Ages. The federal system is of all systems the most difficult and complex, requiring the largest degree not only of skill but of self-adjustment and self-control. Yet upon such a ship of state these Slav landsmen would embark as officers and crew in a stormy sea.

"To the majority of these people the idea of union is novel, until recently entertained only by some score of dreamers, who, while Turkish or Austro-Hungarian subjects themselves, hardly believed in its possibility of realization. Nor do all the groups equally desire union, even now. The Slovenes, for example, are

IMMORTALITY HAS NEW MEAN- ING FOR MILLIONS.

With war wounds beginning to heal, peoples everywhere are giving more thought to the spiritual than was always possible in the hurry and horror of the conflict. The manifi-estation takes many forms but because of the staggering toll of lives, it is perhaps most pronounced in a new eagerness to accept belief in the immortality of the soul. This declares E. S. Martin in the May number of the Red Cross Magazine, is the very wish of millions.

"There never was a time," the writer continues, "so far as anyone knows, when belief in immortality was so necessary to the world as now. That is partly because of an unprecedented bereavement that reaches after consolation, and partly because of perplexity and discouragement that see an old order crumbling and look about for courage to build a new one. Is life worth while that subject to such enormi-ous destruction and coming down to a race worth continuing whose members can contend and ravage so brutally? When faith says there is more to it than this, that the young dead won what they died for, that there is that ahead of them, and that ahead for those who still live, and for the yet unborn, that will be worth all the struggles and the pains it cost, it brings a cordial to a world that is very near the point of fainting."

A NEW BUSINESS ERA.

It looks as though things are up to stay up for a long time to come.
The world's markets everywhere are on the high-price level. Labor will not come down till the high cost of living moves down, and come down so long as wages rule. The two brace and buoy each other and there are other buoying forces. The world is facing a herculean work of reconstruction and the monetary circulation is everywhere inflated. The dollar of 1919 is not the dollar of 1914.

Before long these facts will operate on the minds of the American people and when they sink in enterprise and initiative will go forward with a grand sweep.—Spokane

MOSCOW AND BOLSHEVIK TO FALL: BARROWS

That the fall of Moscow impends and with it the overthrow of the Bolshevik in all Russia is the view of Slav affairs brought back from the Siberian trip as an intelligence officer with the American forces by Lieutenant Colonel David P. Barrows, professor of political science in the University of California. Dr. Barrows also is impressed with the failure of the Bolshevik propaganda to reach the American invading troops.

Colonel Barrows went in March of last year with the first American detachment to Vladivostok, the 27th infantry, commanded by Major General William Graves. He organized an intelligence department of fifty men. The expedition's purpose was to pick the Czechs out of a pocket they were in and help them to Lake Biak, which, with the aid of a Japanese detachment, was accomplished.

PREDICTS EARLY DEFEAT.
It is upon General Kolchak and the loyalist army of 150,000 he has organized and is leading from the north that Barrows improves confidence in his prediction of Moscow's fall. He thinks the Bolshevik movement cannot continue with Moscow lost. He said, upon his arrival yesterday aboard the Siberia:

"The Siberian government is established at Omsk, where Kolchak and his troops are wintering. For two months these forces have been actively engaged against the Red Guards and Bolshevik forces and have won every battle.

"Kolchak is the savior of Russia. He is a remarkable man, an indomitable courage. He has drilled his men to a degree of perfection which makes for an efficient army. Kolchak is the savior of Russia and will be heard from this summer. He is the man for the job. He is going to invade Moscow this summer and when he does the Bolshevik will be crushed.

"The Bolshevik have either imprisoned, shot or driven out of Russia the intelligent class and all officials, both military and civil.

CANNOT LEAVE SIBERIA.
"It will be impossible for the American forces to leave Siberia this summer. When I left Chief Engineer John S. Stevens, with 250 railroad engineers, was preparing to take over the 5500 miles of railroad connecting Vladivostok with the Trans-Siberian.

"In order to handle this line without interference it will be necessary to retain the army there until the summer settles. The Bolshevik propaganda has had absolutely no effect on American troops.

"The Bolshevik refuse to engage in open combat, preferring to fight in small groups and then retreat when pressed. Ottoman Semenov, the same man who was in charge of the Czechs when America came to the relief of them, is now in the forces opposing Admiral Kolchak."

VILLAIN! MOVIE ACTOR FIRED ON; SCREEN SUFFERS

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 17.—The police are searching the city today for a man, who, under the excitement of a tragic moment in a film scene at a crowded theater last night, whipped a pistol from his pocket and fired at the villain in the picture. For an instant the following shot calm held the audience, but when it was realized the shot was the act of a man in the audience, pandemonium reigned until the house was cleared.

The shot, which was fired from the pistol of a returned soldier, came when the girl and her lover were endeavoring to escape from a cave guarded by their captors.

No fatalities resulted.

"Spineless" Americans Are Scored Judge St. Sure Sends Men Off Stand

"There are a lot of spineless Americans this morning," declared Judge A. M. St. Sure from the bench after two witnesses had refused to express their opinion that a man making from $200 to $300 a month and who had bought no Liberty bonds, was an unpatriotic American. It was then before the whirlwind of the $50,000 stunt damage suit of Leroy Purcell of the Strand against Mrs. Nora A. Gardner and Mrs. Elizabeth Leach, in which he alleged that they had him arrested on a false charge of sedition. The two witnesses were called to the stand by the plaintiff to prove his good character. They testified that Purcell bore a reputation for loyalty.

PATRIOTISM AND BONDS.
Attorney Louis Glickman, for the defendants, on cross-examination, asked them if they would still say that Purcell was a loyal patriot in the evidence shown, as the evidence showed, he had purchased none of the Liberty bonds although making from $200 to $300 a month.

Witness Charles S. Booth, president of the United Iron Works, replied that he would have to take into consideration the man's obligations, expressing the view that if he owed considerable money his first duty was to pay that before supporting the government in the fight against the Central empire.

"Do you not know that during this war every loyal American bought bonds to the extent of his ability, even obligating himself burdensomely to support the government?" Glickman asked.

The witness said he knew all about that.

WATCHMAN SHOT; MEXICAN IS HELD

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The freight car looter who shot Special Agent W. H. Gray of the Santa Fe late last night with a rifle, in the China Basin yards, was identified this morning as Martin de Lira, 35, a Mexican section hand, following the arrest of Dolores El Guardo, said to have been De Lira's companion in the attempted robbery which was interrupted by Gray.

According to the woman's story, she ran away from her husband and family in Calexico, Cal., with De Lira, and had been living with him as his wife. She said she had been his companion in various freight car robberies throughout the state.

Last night she went with De Lira, who was armed with a rifle. A seal had been broken and they were attempting to open the door when Special Agent Gray appeared. De Lira fired one shot, which struck Gray just below the right shoulder, causing a severe but not dangerous wound. The couple then fled, De Lira compelling the woman to leave him by threatening to kill her when she became exhausted. She had turned to the yards, where she was arrested by Police Officer Darling of the Central station. She is booked on a charge of attempted robbery.

BATTLESHIP CALIFORNIA SOON READY

VALLEJO, Calif., April 17.—When the 53 officers and 1022 men to be assigned to the battleship California now in process of construction at the Mare Island Navy Yard near here, take up their quarters on the latest and most formidable of the nation's fighting craft of her class, they will find every modern convenience provided for their safety and comfort.

While every known protection will be provided against mine and submarine attack, and naval officers consider the California will be as nearly impregnable against destruction as it is possible to build a ship, the comforts of the men will include a dental office, barber shop and a score of conveniences usually associated with hotels.

The case was finished so far as the testimony was concerned. Jesse Dunn, for the plaintiff, wanted to argue. Judge St. Sure would not listen to him, and promptly gave judgment for the defendants, including the costs.

At the time of Purcell's hearing before Judge Samuels on the charge of sedition, in which he was accused by the two women of declaring the President to be a traitor and an Englishman, and praising the Germans, it was said on behalf of the defendant that he had purchased bonds of each issue, which was proved in the present trial for damages for false arrest. He was acquitted of the sedition charge.

Saloon Substitute Is Sought by Church

NEW YORK, April 17.—A program of church extension work entailing an expenditure of $20,000,000 and including among its proposed activities "a definite attempt to provide a real substitute for the saloon" as a social center has been adopted by the Episcopal church in America, according to an announcement published here today on the authority of the church's federal boards.

Of the funds appropriated, more than two-thirds will be devoted to undertakings in the home field, such as work among immigrants, social service and education. The balance will go to foreign mission expansion, one feature of which will be an increase in the salaries of missionaries.

EASY TERMS OFFERED FOR VICTORY LOAN

The greatest investment ever offered by the government will be sold to the people of Oakland at better terms than even the government asks.

This was announced today by Banker A. J. Mount, on behalf of the Oakland banks.

East bay citizens who invest in the Victory loan are asked by the government to make six payments on investments of less than $500. The Oakland banks say they will, as in the past, allow ten payments. This is done so that even the poorest citizen may be given an equal chance with the richest to buy these government securities.

The banks are now clearing the way for the opening of the great Victory loan campaign April 21, when the greatest investment ever offered by the American government will be offered to the people.

SECURED BY NOTE. The loan, at 4 1/2 per cent, will be for four years only. It is secured by a government gold note.

Bankers assure that they do not believe this loan-paper will ever go below par. They base their assertion on the interest rate, the short term, and the willingness of the people to keep these securities which they have earned with their money.

"This is the best opportunity ever offered the people," says the Victory loan committee.

"There is no doubt of the outcome. The American people went to war because of their ideals, and those same high ideals will make them finish the job."

The slogan of the Victory loan campaign from Maine to California.

IN OTHER TOWNS. The outer towns of the county are now preparing for the Victory loan as enthusiastically as in the largest cities. Niles, Pleasanton, Livermore, San Leandro, Hayward, Newark and the other towns are now bedecked with posters, and the committees in those towns are preparing for a whirlwind campaign.

The Victory loan committee prepared all the final details of the great campaign at a meeting this morning in the Oakland Bank of Savings, including plans for the reception of the Ninety-first division, which is in the hands of a sub-committee.

"It's not a gift, it's a loan, on the best terms," the slogan of the committee. "Oakland will go so far over the top that it will look like an aeroplane over a fence."

The campaign will be unique. Decrying that a state of apathy might exist because the war is over, the committee points out that hundreds of thousands of Americans are still in France and must be backed up.

"And they will be," says the committee. "We are Americans. We never start what we cannot finish."

The committee also points out that this Victory loan is different from others in that it is a loan rather than a bond issue—a four-year loan at 4 1/2 per cent per year, the best terms ever offered to the American public.

WORKERS ORGANIZED. In order that this will be understood, P. S. Lattrell, heading the home canvass department, has organized.

Women are to take an important part in the Victory Loan campaign. The picture shows MRS. EDGAR L. ORMSBY accepting from JOSEPH E. CAINE, chairman of the Oakland committee, the task of directing 5000 women in their efforts to put this city far over the top. Five thousand more women can find opportunity if they apply to Mrs. Ormsby.

Vollmer Is Honored
by Chiefs of Police

August Vollmer, chief of police of Berkeley, was elected vice-president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police at the annual convention of that body in New Orleans yesterday.

A resolution favoring increases in wages for policemen throughout this country and Canada was unanimously adopted and chiefs of departments in all municipalities were urged to ask city administrations for higher salaries for the members of their forces.

Joseph M. Quigley of Rochester, N. Y., was elected president. Detroit was named as the 1920 convention city.

This is only one of several sub-committees and sub-organizations which the committee relies on to push the Victory loan over with a rush.

Meanwhile, giving their assistance to the Victory loan, the promoters of the Ad Masque this year are planning a "Victory pageant" as the stellar attraction of the annual Oakland Ad-Masque festival.

Furthermore, if the Ninety-first division arrives in time, the committee plans to give them a rousing reception.

Taking up the details of the work, division chairmen and vice-chairmen have assumed charge of departments and begun work. They are:

Five thousand Oakland citizens—2000 prominent men in all walks of life—have volunteered to make the house-to-house canvass for the Victory loan.

The Victory loan committee is trying to make it 10,000.

Under Chairman P. S. Lattrell six "colonels" have volunteered to take charge of districts, commanding seven majors, who will each have six captains and 150 lieutenants.

A distinctive badge is being made for the volunteer Victory loan army.

EASTBAY SWELLS
FREEDOM FUND

More than $5000 has been contributed to the Irish Freedom Fund during the three days that the campaign has been in progress in Oakland and Alameda county, according to the announcement today by the committee in charge of the drive. This sum is not inclusive of subscriptions secured by many volunteer workers who have not yet reported on the results of their efforts to the general committee.

The local campaign opened last Tuesday morning, and will continue for approximately two weeks. Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, San Leandro, Hayward and Richmond are included in the campaign being conducted on this side of the bay.

The $5000 already subscribed to the Freedom Fund is not inclusive of contributions to be made by several Irish-American organizations on this side of the bay. At least six different organizations have pledged themselves to raise $1000 each for the fund, and this money is expected to be turned in next Saturday at a general meeting of volunteer workers.

Numerous individual contributions of $100 to the fund were recorded yesterday. Among these who gave this amount to the fight for Irish freedom are Joseph F. Kennedy, J. D. Cronin, John McDonald, E. Burke, Rev. John Illigot, John J. Cox, Judge William H. Donahue and Rev. Lawrence Murphy.

Peter J. Flynn, Rev. P. J. Ryan and Rev. Samuel Tarrant gave $50 each. St. Patrick's Alliance, of Oakland, announced last night that it had $1000 which would be turned over to the freedom fund today.

3 CITIES STIRRED

A three-cornered battle for the person of C. A. Guin, of Seattle, charged to the Irish Freedom Fund during the three days that the campaign has been in progress in Oakland and Alameda county, according to the announcement today by the committee in charge of the drive. BOY IS KILLED
IN REAR-END
CAR COLLISION

Kendall Cates, mortorman of the car that crushed to death James Hitchens in the rear-end collision at Twenty-fourth and Telegraph avenue last night, was booked for manslaughter today following an investigation by the police. Captain of Detectives Peterson held an interview with Cates and was told that the brakes were defective. Cates said that although his car was moving slowly he was unable to stop it before it crashed into the other car.

One person is dead, another seriously injured and several others suffering from minor bruises and other injuries as the result of an accident last evening. A Shattuck, avenue street car crashed into the rear of a Telegraph avenue car at Twenty-third street and Telegraph avenue.

James Hitchens, 11 years old, of 1838 Berryman street, Berkeley, died while being removed to the Emergency hospital after the accident. His body was badly crushed and his skull fractured.

R. J. Earhart, 566 Fifty-third st., sustained a possible fractured skull and probable internal injuries. Several other passengers, thrown about by the impact, sustained cuts and bruises.

According to Mortorman M. K. Pates of the Shattuck car, the accident was caused by his air brakes falling to work. Although he was thrown from his platform and cut by flying glass, the motorman escaped serious injury.

The dead boy and Earhart were standing on the motorman's platform with him at the time. They were crushed when the crash came. The two cars were running on a single track, fairly close together, in the same direction.

No one on the Telegraph car, which was ahead, were injured. Passengers in the Shattuck car, however, were thrown about by the shock. The boy was not thought at first to be seriously injured. Taken to a drug store, he asked for water and said he was not hurt. On the way to the Emergency hospital, he died, and investigation.

The police are investigating the accident.

Mrs. Clara E. Hull, wife of L. E. Hull, of the Hull Plumbing Company of Berkeley, suffered injuries as the result of the collision. She was taken to her home in an automobile. It is believed that her injuries are not dangerous.

MISSING BOYS
QUICKLY FOUND
AT CARNIVAL

Charlie Jones, 9 years old, and Clifton Jones, 5 years old, ran away from their home at 2425 Grove street last night to see the electric lights. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones, their parents, were worried. They called up their neighbors, but none of them had seen Charlie or Clifton. Then they called up the desk sergeant at the police station.

"I'll have them over there in half an hour," said the desk sergeant. Then he called up the policeman on a certain beat. "Walk over the carnival and pick up two boys, 5 and 9, answering to the names of Charlie and Clifton," were the instructions, with accompanying descriptions, from the desk sergeant.

"Boys found and returned to their parents," reported the officer a half hour later.
